11th - 15th November 2024

Week 1

Headteacher's Message

Dear parents and carers,

Today is our annual non-uniform day for Children in Need. As part of our Children in Need fundraising, we held form Bingo during registration and there were lots of excited pupils who managed to win a range of prizes. We will update you next week on the total amount of money raised.

We have a number of trips this week and next week. A group of KS4 pupils visited Manchester Metropolitan University yesterday, where they were able to see what courses and facilities University can offer them in their futures, and what life at University is like. A group of Year 9s are off to Liverpool today on a trip organised by the RS Department. They are visiting the International Slavery Museum, where they will learn about historical and contemporary slavery. Next Thursday evening, a group of KS4 pupils are going to see Blood Brothers at the Palace Theatre in Manchester. Blood Brothers is always a brilliant performance, and it will be really helpful for the pupils to see one of their GCSE texts performed live on stage. We are sure that all pupils on trips will represent parklands really well, as they always do.

We also held our Parent Forum this week. It is always really good to speak to parents and carers, and get their feedback on our policies and initiatives. This week we discussed mobile phones, the new KS3 progress trackers, and attendance. If you would be interested in attending future Parent Forums, please email Mrs Haslam at shaslam@parklandsacademy.co.uk, and she will add you to the mailing list.

HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS?
I am reliably informed by Google that there are now just 37 days until Christmas Day. There are two important after-school events this week. On Tuesday, we have our SEND Review Evening. Key Stage 4 Presentation Evening is on Thursday. Meanwhile, during social time, we now provide separate rooms for chatting/board games, a quiet space and more lively activities supported by Mr. Allerton and Mr. Clarke.

Remembrance Day

On Sunday Mrs Crampton, Mrs Batson and Miss Partington took three of our Head Students to the Remembrance Day service in Chorley. It was lovely to see so many of our pupils involved in the parade with Cadets and other organisations.

In school on Monday we held a special Remembrance Assembly delivered by Mrs Lewis-Brown and Mrs Crampton which focussed on the 80th Anniversary of the D-Day Landings. To accompany the assembly pupils completed relevant work in Secure on the importance of remembrance.

At 11am on the 11th a number of pupils and staff gathered in our Remembrance Garden to lay a wreath to remember former pupils who have lost their lives in conflict. All pupils also observed a two minute silence. Throughout school this was observed impeccably by all.

Lancashire County Council documentary

We were all very excited to have a film crew in school last week. The team was creating a documentary on behalf of Lancashire County Council and Parklands was asked to take part because of how inclusive our school is, in particular for pupils from refugee and asylum seeker backgrounds. The crew was amazed by the work we do here and could not speak highly enough of our incredible pupils. Well done to all of the students involved!

Visit to Manchester Metropolitan University:

On Thursday, a further ten students visited Manchester Metropolitan University to explore student life on a bustling city centre campus. The students thoroughly enjoyed their experience, and the university representatives spoke highly of their excellent conduct throughout the morning. Watch this space for more visits!

PE Update week beginning 11th November 2024

A great week to start the new week of term. Another busy week with netball and football and glow in the dark dodgeball fixtures! The colder weather is starting to creep in so remember warm PE kit. Remember, there is no need to sign up just look at the extra curricular timetable, choose an activity, bring a kit and attend!

Year 7 Girls Football at home against Holy Cross and Bishop Rawsthorne. Our girls had their first set of friendlies against other schools in the district and made us proud. Well done!

Year 8 Boys Football Chorley Cup at home against Southlands. Much better teamwork on display from the boys this week with a much closer game. Some great new additions to the team too. It ended with a loss but an overall improved performance, well done.

Year 8 Boys Glow Dodgeball. A group of year 8 students were selected to attend a glow in the dark dodgeball event held at Albany. What a night! Facepaint, music and LOTS of fun! The pupils had a great time ducking, diving and dodging!

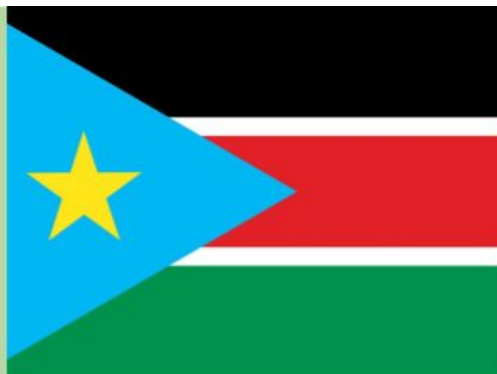

We're so proud of the level of commitments shown by all of our pupils, well done!

Country of the week

South Sudan

South Sudan, the world's newest nation, gained independence from Sudan in July 2011. It is located in East-Central Africa and is characterized by its diverse cultures, languages, and rich natural resources, including oil reserves. The country has faced significant challenges since its independence, including ongoing conflict and humanitarian crises. Despite these struggles, South Sudan is home to vibrant traditions, including music and dance, and has a strong sense of community among its various ethnic groups. The Nile River, which flows through the country, plays a crucial role in the lives of its people, providing water and supporting agriculture.

10 Top Tips for Parents and Educators

TEACHING CYCLE SAFETY

Cycling is an amazing way to spend quality time together as a family, as well as keeping everyone healthy and active – and it's an excellent exercise, whatever the age of your children. Getting started can sometimes be daunting, and there are obvious safety concerns over youngsters who are still getting used to a bike – so follow our top tips to help you ride with confidence.

1 CONSIDER CYCLE TRAINING

Courses like Bikeability are extremely useful, and training in general has come a long way since cycling proficiency began; there are Bikeability courses for adults, too. Cycle training teaches invaluable skills (such as good road positioning, signalling and visibility), and can help both parents and children feel more at ease on busy streets.

2 USE A SUITABLE BIKE

Find a bike of an appropriate size for its rider and resist the temptation to have children 'grow into' theirs by buying one too large for them. A bigger bike will be heavier and more difficult to control, making accidents more likely and potentially putting youngsters off cycling forever. If your child has any specific physical needs, or has dyspraxia, then try out a trike, handcycle or other adaptive cycle to see what works best.

3 TRY A CARGO BIKE

Cargo bikes, particularly the box-bike style, are ideal for transporting small children around. Depending on the type of bike chosen – as well as the size and age of the children – it can be possible to transport up to four little ones in this way, with additional space for other cargo as well.

4 INSPECT YOUR CYCLE

It's a good idea to do some routine checks on any bike before going for a ride to make sure everything's working correctly. The 'M check' is particularly useful: assessing the condition and position of the bike's wheels, handlebars, brakes, pedals, chain and saddle, working from front to back. Online tutorial videos can also teach you how to carry out basic repairs if needed. For more complicated fixes, head to your local bike shop.

5 BRING SUITABLE GEAR

Ensure whatever you're wearing, and any attachments for your bike, are suitable for the ride. A waterproof jacket will let you cycle safely in almost any weather. Make sure any helmets are fitted correctly. If you're riding at dark, remember to fit your bikes with a white front light, a red rear light and a red rear reflector. These are required by law.

6 STICK TO FLAT TERRAIN

Take a smooth, flat route if possible, so it's more suitable for younger cyclists. You might be surprised by how many quiet roads or back streets there may be in your area. Don't be put off by an indirect but easier path as opposed to a shorter, busier one. Look out for the National Cycle Network, canal towpaths and even parks that you can cut through.

7 STAY ALERT AND IN SAFE FORMATIONS

For maximum protection and visibility, ride in a line with children in the middle and adults at either end. If you're the only adult present, take up a position at the rear to ensure all children remain in your sight. Don't be tempted to hug the kerb if cycling on the road – riding approximately a metre out will make you more noticeable to other road users, and you'll also stay clear of any debris in the gutter.

8 AVOID PARKED CARS

When riding past parked cars, try to stay at least a metre away, just in case anyone inside opens a door unexpectedly or the vehicle itself starts to move. This precaution will also deter anyone driving behind from trying to squeeze past you when there isn't enough space, so don't be afraid to ride in a prominent position.

9 START A 'BIKE BUS'

Cycling to school with other families is a potentially fun experience – one which comes with the added benefit of safety in numbers, in case anything goes wrong along the way. Team up with other parents, carers and educators and pick a day to cycle to school together. Who knows – maybe, in time, you'll have other folks asking to join you?

10 HAVE FUN!

Keep in mind that cycling should be fun! A good bike ride can be really enjoyable for adults and children alike, while also being a superb form of exercise. Ease children into the hobby by starting them off with shorter journeys – such as a trip to the park – and build them up to longer, more complicated outings. Some children may get bored on a longer ride, so try to keep a conversation going with them.

CAREER News
Your weekly guide to careers information, advice and news from Parklands High School
There are still a few open events at various local colleges - Year 11 students are permitted to get their applications in as soon as possible to at least TWO colleges. There is still the possibility that a course or subject is withdrawn at a college, or that a college interview (if school) start in February.
• Medic Mentor have a new round of conferences coming up, along with free virtual work experience for both aspiring doctors, dentists and vet vets. It is vital for anyone considering a career in medicine - good GCSEs and A Levels are not enough. If you want to stand out and get those top university places, Medic Mentor offer a six month work experience programme as well, although there is a small charge for that one.
• BAE Systems have now opened their apprenticeship window for 2025 starters. Early application is advised as the selection process is quite involved and there are thousands of applicants. Click here for more information
• Investis are highlighting their brilliant summer work experience opportunities - these are not to be missed. Early booking discount plus bursaries available so no-one should miss out.
• For younger students, why not check out the STEM Dorado website - there is a fantastic free magazine you can subscribe to that delivers STEM content in a fun and engaging way.
• Lots of emphasis on apprenticeships at all levels - there are some amazing opportunities with large national companies, such as National Grid, EDF and of course, the British Army. The basic rate of pay increases considerably in April 2025 - see Miss Berry (top office) if you need more information. There will be an assembly after Christmas by ASK Apprenticeships, explaining how to register with and search the National Apprenticeship website.
Have a great weekend
