

Learning Support Board
 Week Commencing
2nd May 2022

"Opportunity does not waste time with those who are unprepared."
 Idowu Koyenikan

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities
 Local Offer in Lancashire

Things you need to know:

The days may be warmer and the evenings lighter but the summer term can be a stressful time for many. Remember, the door to N17 is always open.

Learningsupport@parklandsacademy.co.uk

Joke of the Week

Venetian blinds are the world's greatest invention.
 Without them it would be curtains for all of us!

Inspire Club
 Quiz

This Ford car was introduced in 1969. What was the name of the model?

Last time's answer: Spain

Instagram

Follow us on Instagram:

p_h_s_learningsupport

Useful Links

- ADDitude website
- Autism Eye
- Autism Parenting Magazine
- British Dyslexia Association
- The Communication Trust
- FIND Newsletter
- Lancashire SEND Partnership
- Headspace \(Meditation & Sleep\)
- KOOH Mental Health Support
- Local Offer
- NHS Urgent Mental Health Helpline
- Witherslack Group

Interesting things to know and do:

Learning Support Board
2nd May 2022

Historical Story of the Week On this day in 1982... CRUISER 'GENERAL BELGRANO' TORPEDOED 323 Argentinians Killed in Falklands War

At 3:57pm on 2nd May 1982, the Royal Navy's nuclear submarine HMS Conqueror fired a spread of three torpedoes at the Argentine cruiser General Belgrano, sailing approximately 230 nautical miles south-west of the Falkland Islands. Two of the torpedoes found their marks on the port side of the vessel. In less than 30 minutes, the Belgrano sank, taking 323 souls with her.

The Belgrano's service career was rather uneventful until the outbreak of the Falklands War on 2nd April. Claiming the territory for itself, Argentina launched an invasion of the Falklands, as well as South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands. Argentina's military junta assumed, incorrectly, that Britain would not attempt a military response. Many were surprised when the British sailed a hastily assembled task force of ships, aircraft, and ground troops 8,000 miles to the South Atlantic to retake the islands.

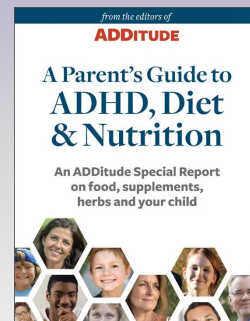

On 23rd April Britain imposed a 200-mile maritime exclusion zone around the Falklands, declaring that any ships within the zone could be attacked. A week later, the main body of the convoy had arrived off the Falklands. Argentina could threaten the British fleet with both its naval forces, including the aircraft carrier Veinticinco de Mayo, as well as fighter-bombers including Super Étendards armed with the, soon to be infamous, Exocet anti-ship missiles.

When British intelligence received word of the General Belgrano's movements, it was decided to attack. The sinking of General Belgrano was a shattering blow. Argentina withdrew its navy to their home ports and would instead rely on air attacks from its bases on the mainland. Britain would suffer its own losses, including two destroyers and two frigates, though none incurred the same loss of life as the Belgrano. To this day, HMS Conqueror remains the only nuclear submarine ever to sink an enemy ship.

On 25th April, South Georgia was retaken, and after several intensive naval battles fought around the Falklands, British troops landed on East Falkland on 21st May. After several weeks of fighting, the large Argentine garrison at Stanley surrendered on 14th June, effectively ending the conflict.

ISSUE
16
OUT
NOW

A Parent's Guide to ADHD, Diet, & Nutrition produced by ADDitude is a 64-page report. Read it to learn more. You can download the eBook but it costs $10.95 (£8.30).

IPSEA

Autism Education Trust

The Autism Education Trust (AET) is a not for profit programme led by two national autism charities – the National Autistic Society (NAS) and Ambitious about Autism (AaA). Established and supported by the Department for Education, the AET supports partnerships to improve educational access, experience and outcomes for autistic children and young people. Underpinned by current research into good autism practice, the AET programme is structured around the three education phases – Early Years, Schools and Post 16.

The Lancashire SEND Partnership brings together all the agencies in Lancashire which provide special educational needs and disability (SEND) services for children, young people, their parents and carers, with representatives from those who use the service.

IPSEA (Independent Provider of Special Education Advice) is a registered charity offering free and independent legally based information, advice and support to help get the right education for children and young people with all kinds of special educational needs and disabilities.

Learning Support Board
 Week Commencing
 2nd May 2022

Things you need to know:

The days may be warmer and the evenings lighter but the summer term can be a stressful time for many. Remember, the door to N17 is always open.
Learningsupport@parklandsacademy.co.uk

"Opportunity does not waste time with those who are unprepared."

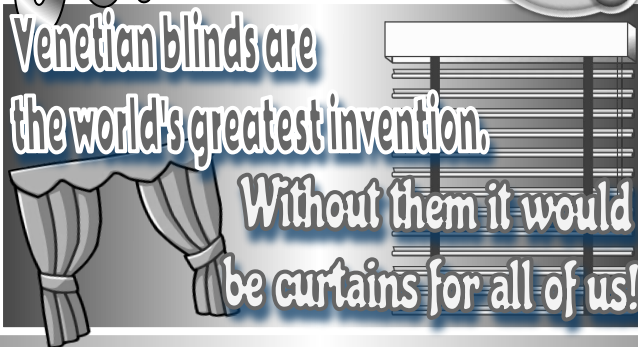

Idowu Koyenikan

Special Educational Needs and Disabilities Local Offer in Lancashire

JOKE of the Week

Venetian blinds are the world's greatest invention. Without them it would be curtains for all of us!

DON'T STOP UNTIL YOU'RE PROUD

Inspire Club Quiz

This Ford car was introduced in 1969. What was the name of the model?

Last time's answer: Spain

Instagram

Follow us on Instagram:

p_h_s_learningsupport

Useful Links

- FIND Newsletter
- GOV.UK Covid-19 Information
- Headspace \(Meditation & Sleep\)
- KOOOTH Mental Health Support
- Local Offer
- NHS Urgent Mental Health Helpline
- Witherslack Group
- ADDitude website
- Autism Eye
- Autism Parenting Magazine
- British Dyslexia Association
- The Communication Trust

Interesting things to know and do:

Learning Support Board
2nd May 2022

Historical Story of the Week On this day in 1982...

CRUISER 'GENERAL BELGRANO' TORPEDOED 323 Argentinians Killed in Falklands War

At 3:57pm on 2nd May 1982, the Royal Navy's nuclear submarine HMS Conqueror fired a spread of three torpedoes at the Argentine cruiser General Belgrano, sailing approximately 230 nautical miles south-west of the Falkland Islands. Two of the torpedoes found their marks on the port side of the vessel. In less than 30 minutes, the Belgrano sank, taking 323 souls with her.

The Belgrano's service career was rather uneventful until the outbreak of the Falklands War on 2nd April. Claiming the territory for itself, Argentina launched an invasion of the Falklands, as well as South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands. Argentina's military junta assumed, incorrectly, that Britain would not attempt a military response. Many were surprised when the British sailed a hastily assembled task force of ships, aircraft, and ground troops 8,000 miles to the South Atlantic to retake the islands.

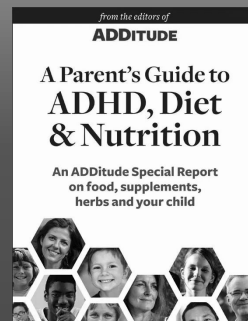

On 23rd April Britain imposed a 200-mile maritime exclusion zone around the Falklands, declaring that any ships within the zone could be attacked. A week later, the main body of the convoy had arrived off the islands. Argentina could threaten the British fleet with both its naval forces, including the aircraft carrier Veinticinco de Mayo, as well as fighter-bombers including Super Étendards armed with the, soon to be infamous, Exocet anti-ship missiles.

When British intelligence received word of the General Belgrano's movements, it was decided to attack. The sinking of General Belgrano was a shattering blow. Argentina withdrew its navy to their home ports and would instead rely on air attacks from its bases on the mainland. Britain would suffer its own losses, including two destroyers and two frigates, though none incurred the same loss of life as the Belgrano. To this day, HMS Conqueror remains the only nuclear submarine ever to sink an enemy ship.

On 25th April, South Georgia was retaken, and after several intensive naval battles fought around the Falklands, British troops landed on East Falkland on 21st May. After several weeks of fighting, the large Argentine garrison at Stanley surrendered on 14th June, effectively ending the conflict.

ISSUE
16
OUT
NOW

A Parent's Guide to ADHD, Diet, & Nutrition produced by ADDitude is a 64-page report. Read it to learn more. You can download the eBook but it costs $10.95 (£8.30).

WORTH
A LOOK

IPSEA

Autism
Education
Trust

The Autism Education Trust (AET) is a not for profit programme led by two national autism charities – the National Autistic Society (NAS) and Ambitious about Autism (AaA). Established and supported by the Department for Education, the AET supports partnerships to improve educational access, experience and outcomes for autistic children and young people. Underpinned by current research into good autism practice, the AET programme is structured around the three education phases – Early Years, Schools and Post 16.

The Lancashire SEND Partnership brings together all the agencies in Lancashire which provide special educational needs and disability (SEND) services for children, young people, their parents and carers, with representatives from those who use the service.

IPSEA (Independent Provider of Special Education Advice) is a registered charity offering free and independent legally based information, advice and support to help get the right education for children and young people with all kinds of special educational needs and disabilities.