

WIDER READING IN FRENCH

LA POESIE

Throughout both key stages pupils are given to opportunity to study different poetry such as Les Sept Couleur Magiques

LES VIRELANGUES

There are many opportunities to try some fun tongue twisters. One example is Madame la Saucissière

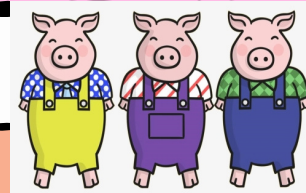

LES PAROLES

Lyrics of songs are very helpfull when learning a language. We have used artists such as Dua Lipa

LES BLOGS

Authentic blogs are very useful. At Ks4 we have used recipes to create famous dishes such as La Galette des Rois

LES PETITES HISTOIRES

World Book day brings lots of opportunity for reading and fablecottage.com provides lots of choice . A favourite with some familiar vocab is Les Trois Petits Cochons

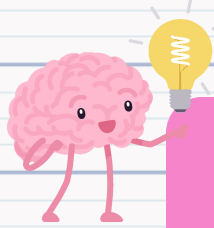

LES MAGAZINES

Interactive and online resources that discuss topical issues are very useful and engaging for pupils

READ LIKE A...

LINGUIST

FAMILIAR VOCABULARY

Activate your memory!
Look for words you recognise and words you already know

DISCOVER CONTEXT

See how the title or the introduction of the text give you clues to help you understand

TOP TIPS

When you read a text written in French, remember to use a range of skills to help you understand

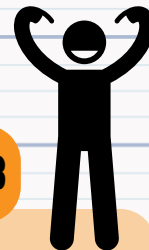

THE TENSE OF THE VERB

At what time is the action taking place?
In the past, present or future?

SUBJECT OF THE VERB

Who is doing the action?
Think about pronouns: je, tu, il, elle, nous, vous, ils and elles

LOOK FOR COGNATES

Find words which are the same or similar to the English 'e.g. 'le weekend', BUT be careful of false friends

Weekend

There are many opportunities to read in French lessons . Here are some of the texts we focus on.

	Term 1	Term 2	Term 3
Year 7	Les 7 couleurs Magiques	Les Trois Petits Cochons	Familiale Jacques Prévert
Year 8	L'homme qui te ressemble	Les Habits Neufs de l'Empereur	Une recette
Year 9	Déjeuner du Matin	Vive le Vent	Quand j'étais petit(e)

The key stage 4 curriculum provides a plethora of opportunities for reading such as : literary extracts, news articles, poems , blogs , letters and cartoon strips