

Career Opportunities in Religious Education

Most trips and visits, we endeavour to link to careers to inspire future paths. Where possible we include virtual visits and web-based tours in our provision. These strategies allow pupils to see sites in a way that isn't possible due to location and to considers how this can lead to future opportunities.

The subject has a Careers Board for inspiration and reference.

We participate in National Careers Week and deliver information which links to our curriculum.