

Our Current School Governors

Peter Faulkner

Staff Governor

I am a committed teacher with twenty six years of experience. I have taught in a variety of schools: church school (four years), middle school (one year), international school – Kuwait (three years), two academies (nineteen years). I have held a number of positions of responsibility including Head of Department, Head of Faculty, Head of Year, Head of House, Assistant Head Teacher and Pastoral Deputy Head Teacher.

In the ten years as a member of senior leadership, I have attended and chaired a variety of governor meetings including sub-committee meetings on curriculum, pastoral and finance agendas. As Pastoral Deputy Head Teacher I was also a governor at Bolton Sixth Form College when it was transferring to new builds.

I am happily married to Sue Faulkner who I met flying out to Kuwait. Sue is Headteacher of Bolton School, Junior Boys Division. We have two children, Adam and Hannah.
