Response from school : At Penwortham Priory Academy the curriculum is designed to recognise children's prior learning from each key stage, provide challenging learning experiences that require pupils to think hard, allow them to develop leadership and organisational skills and be resilient, learners with initiative who have excellent communication skills and are ready to face the challenges beyond school. High quality academic and pastoral guidance enables this and we provide subject choices that support pupils' learning and progression, and enable them to work towards achieving their goals. The curriculum remains as broad as possible for as long as possible. Pupils study a strong academic core of subjects through the EBacc. There is a high focus on developing the character and culture of the pupils to be positive, committed individuals willing to evolve, and show kindness and respect to all. You can find out more information about our curriculum and the good range of subjects offered on our website. The curriculum link can be found across the top of the website home page. For any further information, please contact Mrs Cowell, Vice Principal at l.cowell@priory.lancs.sch.uk

Response from school : Our Personal Development Curriculum is designed to help all of our pupils gain the skills, knowledge and understanding they need to lead healthy, independent lives and to become informed, active, responsible and respectful citizens. We ensure that we develop pupils' characters, giving them qualities they need to flourish in society along with developing their confidence and resilience so that they keep themselves mentally healthy. Along with this, we prepare all of our pupils for the next phase of education. This is addressed through our curriculum, PSHE & Learning for Life curriculum, assemblies, careers fayres, independent careers advice and guidance, high-quality pastoral support within the school and much, much more. For further information on how we support your child's wider personal development, please refer to your child's planner along with the curriculum page on our website. Any further questions, please contact Ms Smith, Lead Practitioner for Personal Development at t.smith@priory.lancs.sch.uk for further information.
