This can be undertaken by raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to Miss G Conway, Exams Officer. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within 3 calendar days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must complete and return a complaints and appeals form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the Senior Leadership Team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 14 working weeks.

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.
