World Book Day At Priory

It's not often, if ever, you see a dinosaur running around Priory but it was all part of an action-packed World Book Day!

Year 9 pupil, Lochlan, donned the outfit as part of the 'dress up as a book character' challenge but that was only one section of the fun-filled literacy events which were going on around school yesterday.

"I got the costume for Hallowe'en and thought I would wear it for World Book Day," said Lochlan. "I did take it off for class though!"

On a tour around the school, you could bump into Mary Poppins, Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz, Mr Trunchbull from Matilda along with Where's Wally, plenty of Harry Potter characters – Mr Watters as Albus Dumbledore was impressive! – Mr Men, Sherlock Holmes and many more as pupils and staff alike really got involved in the day.

Head of English, Mrs Gidden said: "For the English Department, this is a really important day. We know the importance of reading and we stress this in English every day but it's a chance for other departments school-wide to spread the love of reading."

"It's a chance for the children to dress up and express themselves – and the staff love it too!"

Mrs Scully won the decorated door event – in a very high-standard of competition – with her door, with added balloons, depicting 'The Very Hungry Caterpillar.'

Conflict in Ukraine and its Impact on Children and Young People

This may be a worrying time for pupils. Although pupils may prefer not to speak about these issues at school, children and young people may be accessing information about the conflict from sources of varying degrees of reliability.

In order to help us all to assist our pupils understand some of the issues associated with the conflict in our discussions with them, both in school and at home, the British Psychological Society has advice and guidance on how to best support children and young people who are anxious about war and conflict:

www.bps.org.uk/news-and-policy/supporting-children-manage-anxiety-over-war-conflict-and-crises

Also, the Department for Education has guidance available:

The National Youth Agency has a platform of support for young people and their workers. There are resources and a message of support board:

"I am surprised to win," she said. "I chose the book as it's my daughter's favourite, but all the ideas, including the balloons to make the caterpillar, came from the pupils who helped me."

There was a Treasure Hunt at lunch-time as well as the popular Masked Reader competition, where a teacher read a script with a few clues but a voice changer disguised their voice and the pupils had to identify the teacher.

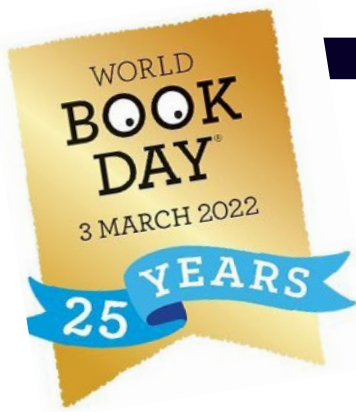

There was also a 'Hooked into Books' quiz from Mrs Elliott where pupils had to guess which books got which teacher 'hooked on books'. Who enjoyed Horrible Histories? Which teacher read the Beano all the time? Who loved any Roald Dahl books? Who enjoyed the diary format of Adrian Mole? All questions which the pupils had to answer.

Head Girl, Darcy, dressed up as Mary Poppins, and was voted one of Mrs Gidden's favourites, and admitted it was tinged with a bit of sadness. "It was my last World Book Day at Priory so I wanted to do something special and I do like to dress up!"

Kyle was Mr Wormwood in the school production of Matilda and he had the chance to wear his bright outfit again. "I decided to revamp it!"

A hugely successful World Book Day at Priory – where a love of reading from staff and pupils is clear!

Learn to succeed

Wow, what a whirlwind! The pupils and staff were amazing at yesterday's World Book Day.

There were lots of entries to all our quizzes and lots of fabulous pupils in costume.

The Code Cracker and 'Hooked into Books' quiz winners will be announced next week by Mrs Elliott and Mrs Webster.

The winners of best dressed pupil:

Shannon T, Year 9 - as Sherlock Holmes
Darcy C, Year 11 - as Mary Poppins
Cora P, Year 11 - as Dorothy

Best dressed staff:

Miss Makinson as Moaning Myrtle

Best dress department

The PE department

Best decorated doors:

Mrs Elliott
Mrs Massey
The PE Office
The Main Office
Mr Henshaw

Overall decorated door winner: Mrs Scully

The treasure hunt was simply MAD! We had over 40 pupils running around school desperately searching for book related clues:

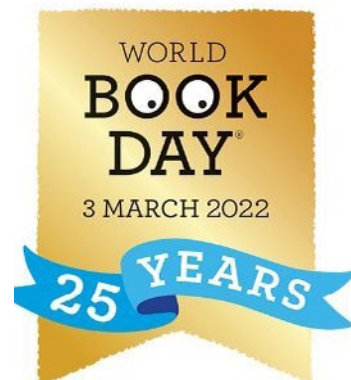

Winners were: Alfie D, Tom D, Seb C (All Year 11)

They were closely followed by a huge group of Year 9s, soaked to the skin! They included Connor McG, Lewis H, Samuel D, Preston McM and Lily McM. Lucy B, India P, Jake L and Katie H joined in, as did Geetha R; Alex T in Year 8 and Year 7s Ariffa B, Junior M, Shiven N, Josh B and Seth L. There were so many we couldn't write them all down and even when they heard the prize had been claimed by the Year 11s, they were still good natured and flushed with excitement. Fabulous!

The afternoon saw 'The Masked Reader' and although we have some entries already, the deadline is at the end of Friday, so we will announce the winner on Monday.

What a great day! Thanks so much for your support.

Game Over

by Mark Wheeler

Game Over tells the harrowing true story of teenager Breck Bednar, who was groomed over the internet and brutally murdered on 17th February 2014 by a supposed 'friend' that he met online.

Our students are excited to be able to bring a different style of theatre to the community and to be able to send a message that is vitally important in today's society.

Here at Priory, we take great pride in our Performing Arts department and wanted to broaden the cultural experiences that our students are exposed to. We also want to show the community different styles of theatre, allowing the public to see the different strengths and talents our students have as well as bring something thought-provoking and educational.

Tickets are on sale from Monday, 7 March via SCOPay and reception (cash only). All tickets are £5 and we must stress it has a certificate of 12+.

Language barriers are proving to be a great obstacle for the UK army operating in foreign regions, and as a result, new secondary language requirements are being put into place.

The army recognises miscommunication and misunderstanding of different cultures as a cause of many errors in their foreign campaigns. As such, they have set out to increase the amount of soldiers who have basic fluency in a foreign language, alongside cultural knowledge of the people who speak it.

Jane W from 8E1 is this week's Linguist Of The Week.

Mrs Bailey added "Jane has a natural linguistic ability. She really enjoys practising the speaking of the language in pairs and in class. We

PICK OF THE MONTH

Miss Ackers' Recommended Read

Stardust by Neil Gaiman

This month Humanities and AR teacher, Miss Ackers, has sent in her 'pick'...

At the dawn of the Victorian era, Tristran dreams of adventures over the wall and into the magical land known as Faerie. When a star falls and lands over the wall, he promises to bring it back for his one true love, Victoria, however he finds way more than he bargained for in a world that's dangerous and strange beyond imagining.

His journey takes him through epic countryside to meet princes, unicorns, stars, witches and other magical creatures in a story that will blow your mind and keep you wanting more. It's the story of how a boy turns into a man, discovers that there's more to life than the small dull village that he lives in and realises he's certainly more than just a shop boy.

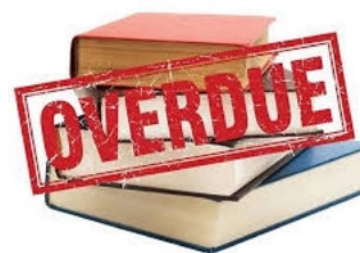

This book was brilliant, one of the best stories I've read for years and Neil Gaiman's writing was able to paint such a glorious picture in my head. I'd definitely recommend this book to the higher ZPD readers. The film is also brilliant to watch afterwards to bring the story to the big screen!

Library Book Amnesty

Please could pupils return any overdue library books. We have hundreds of books out in circulation and we really need them back!

The school library plays a very important role in promoting the habit of reading for pleasure as well as enriching students' learning so we hope you can appreciate that the library must be able to maintain its stock for the benefit of all pupils.

Please ransack your homes to locate any forgotten or lost books that might be lurking in nooks and crannies, under beds and behind shelves.

Please note this is an amnesty so no sanctions will be given. We just want the books back!

Mrs Gidden's Cool Readers Club

Here's what our Cool Readers Club is all about...

They stopped when Covid first hit but now they're back. These are our reading stars put forward by their English teacher. We interview them about their current book, what they like reading about and what they like to do when they're not reading.

Introducing, Kaycee..

Kaycee has a number of favourite subjects at Priory – and reading is one of them.

Kaycee says her favourite authors are Jacqueline Wilson and David Walliams.

"I like both of these, especially David Walliams as they are easy to read and he puts the meanings at the bottom of the page of the big words so you learn while you are reading."

"My favourite subjects in school are Maths and Technology and I would like to be a teacher or doctor in the future."

"I am also considering being a chef as I help my mum a lot with cooking at home."

"My other hobby is swimming."

Mrs Gidden added,

"Kaycee is a very capable reader and is brilliant with guessing and inferring and reading between the lines. With complex texts like Orwell's 1984 and Animal Farm, Kaycee has the reading capability to be able to understand key characters and ideas like thought conditioning even."

Kaycee's vocabulary improves all the time through reading too. She'll need a good vocab if she's going to be a chef as Gordon Ramsay's is a little limited!

The Headteacher's Log Book - How things have changed!

Back in the day the Headteacher at the time, Mr Summers, kept a journal to record the day's key events. We have recently discovered some of these beautifully scribed logs in our archives and our resident historian, History teacher Mr Eccles, has revelled in them to find 'picks' which we will find amusing to read today. How things have changed!

12th March 1979:

A successful buffet dance was held at school. It was agreed that an enjoyable evening had taken place and it had realised a profit of £53.70. A 14" portable TV has been purchased at a cost of £59 for the raffle at the Spring Fayre.

Bringing music to your ears at break and lunch

MABAL is music played through the school's tannoy system during break and lunch. Chosen by Mr Taylor, Lead Teacher for Music, this is designed to offer exposure to the curriculum in different ways, and support pupils' appreciation of music.

The focus is on one theme each week across a genre, a country or from history. The theme could also link to the season or an event in school, such as the production.

Next week it's all about:

The 1970s

The decade of the Space Hopper, the Ford Cortina, Raleigh Chopper bikes, the record player and the cassette recorder.

Disco, Funk, Soul, R&B, Pop, Hard Rock, Soft Rock were all common genres in the music world in the 1970s. The late '70s also witnessed the birth of another genre still popular today - hip-hop.

Some of the most famous pop music of all time was recorded in the '70s; from David Bowie to Led Zeppelin to Pink Floyd. Vinyl records were affordable to everyone and the record player was at its most popular. Enormous music festivals like Woodstock disappeared as quickly as they arrived, and it is fair to say that 1970 marked the end of an era as The Beatles as a group dissolved, as each went their separate ways appearing on solo albums.

Among the popular artists in the 1970's were Elton John, the Jackson Five, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond and Simon & Garfunkel. More local were the Bee Gees who were born on the Isle of Man and then lived in Manchester. They were famous for songs such as 'Stayin' Alive' and 'Night Fever' but have been just as successful as composers.

ABBA, named after the first letters of their members' names, was a supergroup of the late 1970's until their double divorce and their autobiographical 'The Winner Takes it All'. Elvis reappeared in concert in the 1970's, after making nearly 30 films in the 1960's, until his death at the age of 42 in 1977.

Future weeks' theme suggestions are welcomed - pupils/staff should see Mr Taylor, email a.taylor@priory.lancs.sch.uk or contact via Teams.

Every week, Miss Thornton, ventures out of the classroom to chat with our pupils and find out what they've really enjoyed the most about their learning this week.

Here's what they said:

Two Year 8 pupils, speaking about their History lesson with Miss Ackers...

"We are studying the Jack the Ripper murders. We had to read about the crimes and then create a timeline like a detective."

A Year 8 pupil, speaking about his English lesson with Mrs Elliott...

"I'm enjoying the novel we are studying. It's about homeless people and it's called Stone Cold."

A Year 9 pupil speaking about their Science lesson with Mrs Massey...

"We were using equations to discover whether something was an atom, an element or a molecule."

A Year 10 pupil speaking about his Chemistry lesson with Mr Bedford...

"Chemistry with Mr Bedford this week was good. We were using the acronym 'MOLES' to help us calculate all sorts about elements and working on balanced equations."
