

Spellings 8th November 2021

Year 5A – Tested Monday 15th November

accident – The lady had an accident on the boat.

accidentally – I accidentally moved the key and now we can't find it.

actual – That is the actual answer to the problem.

actually – I don't actually know where Miss has put the book.

address – What will your new address be when you move house next week?

although – Although it is summer, it is still really cold outside.

appear – The Moon can appear smaller some evenings.

arrive – I can't wait to arrive on holiday next week.

Year 5B – Tested Monday 15th November dictionary – The dictionary helps us to find the meaning of a word.

disastrous – Half of the city was destroyed by the disastrous earthquake.

embarrass – I didn't mean to embarrass you during the show.

environment – We need to make sure we keep our environment clean and tidy.

equipment – The maths equipment will be very useful for the upcoming test.

equipped – I have equipped her with the tools she needs to complete the job.

especially – It was little dark this morning, especially when I was walking the dog.

exaggerate – It is important we don't exaggerate when we re-tell the story.

excellent – Your Science work is excellent Bella.

existence – The organisation has been in existence for fifteen years.