

SPAG

(Correcting Punctuation and up-levelling)

the dog was barking

the cat was in the tree

I could see the car

his chair was yellow

the game was unfair

her favourite animal was an elephant

he liked dinosaurs

it was a spooky building

i could see a spaceship

is that your purse

SPAG (Prepositions)

A Messy Bedroom

Identify Prepositional Phrases

Below is a description of a messy bedroom. Underline all the prepositional phrases in the text. There are eleven altogether – can you spot them all?

Daniel's bedroom was a terrible mess! It looked like a tornado had passed across his room and turned everything upside-down! Across the floor, toys were scattered and Daniel's favourite superhero toy had been thrown under the bed. A pile of old magazines were precariously stacked behind the bedroom door, waiting to be knocked over. By his bed, a small table stood, covered in empty sweet wrappers and an old drink carton. Feeling horrified, Daniel's mum hadn't entered the room for several days due to the mess. Behind the wardrobe doors, piles of unfolded and dirty clothes lay screwed up waiting to be sorted. 'I want this bedroom cleaned by tomorrow,' demanded his mum. Daniel walked into his room and lay on his bed.

'I'll do it first thing in the morning,' he thought to himself as he shoved another dirty sock beneath his pillow.

Reading Pobble 365

(I can use inference to answer questions)

- Who is the author and why has he written these books?
- What type of books do you think they are?
- Why is he worried about what people will think of them?
- Who is it that will read them?
- Why is he so small/why are the books so big?
- Why are butterflies carrying them?
- Where do you think they have been written?
- Who does the table belong to?

