

Search 'Draw with Rob' on YouTube and choose an illustration you would like to have a go at drawing. Rob is a children's book illustrator. Can you create your own illustrated character for a book?

mblackburn@poolhouse.lancs.sch.uk

Read the poem 'Leisure' by W.H Davies and think about its structure and the poetic features it uses. Then, have a go at writing a poem about your life since you were last at school.

Watch a new film and write a review for this film. Who would you recommend this film to? How many stars out of 5 would you give it? What is the main plot of the film and who were the main characters?

Diamond Class Work Web Week 4

Login to ActiveLearn and open the Cave Commotion activity in the Abacus section. Complete the three activities that test your knowledge of fractions.

Write ten of your own sentences, using modal verbs, about what you have been doing during lockdown. E.g. I must wash my hands. I should complete my work web. Circle the modal verb in each sentence.

Complete one activity per day (Monday-Friday). You may send any of evidence of your work to my email provided below. Please email me with any questions you have regarding any of the tasks too. I look forward to hearing from you and seeing your work!

Can you design a new logo for Pool House CP School? It must include the name of the school either in full or the initials and must have an image which is bright and colourful.

Leisure

by W. H. Davies

What is this life if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare?

No time to stand beneath the boughs,
And stare as long as sheep and cows:

No time to see, when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass:

No time to see, in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night:

No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet, how they can dance:

No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began?

A poor life this if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.