

Year 6 Spellings – to be tested Monday 10th

May

possession

I always lock my most valuable possession away in my safe.

expression

He could tell what she was thinking, just from the expression on her face.

discussion

The class engaged in discussion about the text they had just read. director.

confession

They approached the priest, ready to make their confession.

permission

Did you ask permission before playing that game?

admission

The cost of admission is £12 an adult and £6 per child.

progression

The best lessons will always show signs of progression.

mission

He agent began his top-secret mission.

concussion

They checked the casualty for concussion after the terrible head injury.

profession

Teaching is Mr Blackburn's chosen profession.

Mr Blackburn's group

Year 6 Spellings – to be tested Monday 10th

May

main

After a lovely starter, the family were ready to eat their main course.

mane

The lion groomed its mane in order to keep its neat appearance.

mail

I waited for the postman to arrive as I was expecting mail.

male

My old teacher was female, but my new teacher is male.

hear

“Did you hear what I just said?” she asked.

here

“How often do you visit here?” she asked.

brake

The man slammed his foot on the brake to stop the car suddenly.

break

The sign in the shop said, “If you break it, you buy it!”

Mrs Gibson’s and Miss Anderson-Jones’

group