

Year 6 Spellings – to be tested Wednesday 16th March

ambitious He was a highly ambitious individual.

cautious It is important to be cautious when driving in unpleasant conditions.

fictitious At the end of the myth/ legend they decided that it was completely fictitious.

infectious She had an infectious laugh.

nutritious The meal that they made was very nutritious.

fractious The two of them had a very fractious relationship.

superstitious She was an incredibly superstitious person.

scrumptious The food that they bought from the takeaway was scrumptious.

contentious It had been a contentious issue for many years.

surreptitious She completed the task in a surreptitious, secretive way.

Group 1

Year 6 Spellings – to be tested Wednesday

16th March

science

Science was her favourite subject at school.

scene

A crowd gathered at the scene.

discipline

He needed a little discipline so was given a detention.

fascinate

The shooting stars in the sky were enough to fascinate her.

crescent

She looked up at the sky and saw a crescent moon.

scissors

Has anyone got a pair of scissors that I can borrow?

descend

They began to descend into the unknown caves and caverns.

ascend

They watched the balloons ascend into the sky.

Group 2