

Year 6 Spellings – to be tested Wednesday 23rd March

adorable

The new puppy that they took home was absolutely adorable.

tolerable

The noise was more tolerable today than it was yesterday.

changeable

I might take a coat with me as the weather is very changeable today.

noticeable

There has been a noticeable difference in your presentation – well done!

dependable

She is a loyal and dependable person.

comfortable

My new trainers were incredibly comfortable to run in.

understandable

It had been a very long day – it was understandable that people were beginning to yawn.

reasonable

It seemed a perfectly reasonable request to make.

enjoyable

It had been a very enjoyable afternoon.

laughable

The ideas they were suggesting were laughable at best.

Group 1

Year 6 Spellings – to be tested Wednesday

23rd March

sadly

Sadly, I have not seen him for many years now.

completely

I was completely shocked by what I saw!

usually

I usually have pizza for my lunch on a Friday.

finally

It was finally decided who was taking the final penalty.

comically

The glasses he was wearing were comically large.

happily

They walked off happily into the sunset.

gently

Gently stir the mixture in the bowl.

suddenly

The events happened so suddenly that I almost missed them.

Group 2