Spring Cycle B	Expressive Painting Painting, Sketchbooks	Still Life Drawing, Painting, Collage, Sketchbooks Fossil Art	Identity Painting, Digital, Drawing, Sketchbooks
Paint, Colour, Collage	Pupils will become familiar with the term 'expressionism'. They will be introduced to two artists who use colour and mark making to make art. Pupils will take part in discussion, responding to artists work verbally and visually in sketchbooks and peer conversation. Pupils will use various home-made tools to apply paint in abstract patterns. They will continue to develop their knowledge of primary and secondary colours through expressive mark making, connecting colour and texture. Pupils will then consolidate what they have learnt by recording and reflecting in sketchbooks. Pupils will explore the brushwork of two old masters. They will focus in on details of paintings to understand how they built the work. Pupils will respond through class discussion and creating visual notes in their sketchbooks. Pupils will record similar brush marks that they see in paintings and capture the colour that stand out to them. Pupils will arrange their own still life scene which they will go on to make continuous line drawings of. They will expand their journey by introducing colour and form by tearing and arranging coloured paper in their composition. Pupils will go on to use acrylic paint to create gestural paintings of their still life scene, putting into practice all that they have experienced during the half term. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Marela Zacarias, Charlie French, Vincent Van Gogh, Cezanne	Pupils will become familiar with the term 'still life'. They will respond to the work of Cezanne by capturing elements of his paintings in their sketchbooks, focusing particularly on colour, line, and shape. Pupils will engage in a drawing exercise to help them see shapes / explore line and colour. Pupils will explore a variety of contemporary artists who study still life in different forms. They will respond verbally in class discussion. Pupils will compare contemporary work with the work of Dutch and Flemish 16th Century artists. They will record and reflect throughout in their sketchbooks. Pupils will create their own still life artworks. Option 1: Pupils will use collage to create their still life artwork. They will paint their own sheets of paper, thinking about line, colour, and texture to use in their collage. Option 2: Pupils will arrange and photograph their own still life compositions before taking them into paint. They will consider colour, line and texture throughout the process. Option 3: Pupils will work with clay to create fruit tiles. They will gain skills in working with clay as a resistant material, resulting in an exploration of texture, mark making, colour and composition. Option 4: Pupils will work with ink and cardboard to create powerful 3d graphic images. Pupils will engage in exercises such as continuous line drawings and thoughtful mark making before moving onto their still life. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Paul Cezanne, Peter Claesz, Melchior d' Hondecoeter, Jan Davidsz, Jacob Vosmaer, Hilary Pecis, Nicole Dyer, Baas Meeuws, Hirasho Sato	Pupils will explore the work of the artists Njideka Akunyili Crosby, Yinka Shonibare and Thandiwe Muriu, who all work with notions about identity. They will record their thoughts and observations in sketchbooks through visual note taking. Pupils will create a series of portraits drawings of their peers using a variety of drawing materials. They will work intuitively at varying lengths of time to record and draw. Pupils will create a physical (using drawing materials, paper, collage), or digital exploration of how to make a layered portrait which captures aspects of their personality and identity. They will use sketchbooks throughout to help explore and focus, test and reflect. Pupils will display their work in a clear space and reflect on the half term, sharing what they like and what they would like to try again through peer discussion. Njideka Akunyili Crosby, Yinka Shonibare, Thandiwe Muriu, Mike Barrett
