

Rayner Stephens High School Anti-Bullying Pathway

As a parent if you are concerned that your child is being bullied contact school as soon as possible and ask to discuss with your child's Head of Year. As a learner if you wish to report bullying please speak to your form tutor/Head of Year or any member of staff you feel comfortable to discuss this with. Learners can also use the Tootoot online system to report issues around bullying.

Parents and learners will have the opportunity to discuss their worries, whether that be via the telephone or if required face to face. A plan of action will be devised in conjunction with parent and learner.

Inclusion team staff member to take appropriate action/investigate as soon as possible- and if appropriate, restorative intervention, sanctions, contacting parents. All information will be logged using the school's safeguarding system.

Mrs Knowles to ensure all appropriate action has been taken and ensure any follow up that may be required is actioned.
