Monday 20th March

Dear parents and carers,

I am delighted to be writing to you today to share our published Section 48 report following the school's Denominational Inspection on 9th February 2023. The outcome was that the school continues to be good. The report recognises aspects of the school's provision that are now outstanding, including the Catholic life of the school, and I would like to take this opportunity to thank our pupils, parents and staff for their dedication and commitment to the continuing success of Regina Coeli.

The inspectors met with parents, pupils, and staff. They attended collective worship, observed lessons and looked at our children's wonderful work in their books.

As always, we were very proud of the pupils during the inspection, they were excellent ambassadors and they were so happy to show the inspectors around and tell them all about our school. Their commitment to the faith life of the school and their understanding of the importance of their service to others shone through. The report said, "Pupils' behaviour reflects the influence of living and working in a Catholic school community. They link the teachings of scripture to everyday actions with ease and accept a personal responsibility to share God's love through their interactions."

We were pleased the report also recognised Regina Coeli as an inclusive school with a strong sense of community. This is something we have worked hard to maintain and develop, particularly after the interruptions of the pandemic.

The report will be on the school's website and I have included a link for you to access it here. We look forward to continuing our partnership with you and living out our faith in action together.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Tessa Christoforou

Head Teacher
