

Hansel and Gretel

"We have no food. Hansel and Gretel will just have to go!" said the step mum.

"And they are a pain," she said.

"In the [✂]e morning w*e will g*o t*o get w*o*o[✂]d.

"Let's a*i*m t*o g*o h*o*m*e w*i*t*h*o*u*t them," she s*a[✂]i*d.

“We are just getting wood. “Wait here,” she said.

“Let’s just wait a bit longer,” said Hansel.

“We can go home. I left that trail of old stones,”
said Hansel.

We will go again for wood in the morning," said the step mum. "There will be no stones to make a trail."

"We are just getting wood.

"Wait here," she said.

"We cannot wait longer," said Hansel.

"It's a storm. Look at the hail!" said Gretel.

"We can go home. I left a trail of old bread,"
said Hansel.

“The snails have eaten it and I forgot the way!”
said Hansel.

"I am worn out," ^{✂️}said Hansel

"My dress is torn!" ^{✂️}said Gretel.

“Look there is an old lady and a house of sweets!” said Gretel.

Angry Red A flashed his torch and be^{ee}ped his horn.

“W^{ai}it!” he ^{sa}id, “She is a witch. Her sweets
^{ar}e bait!”

“Miss Oh No’s house is a short drive,” he said,

“I have a house of sweets and I am not a witch!” she said.

"Wait come home! I have just been paid lots for chopping wood. I sent your step mum away with her tail between her legs!" said their dad.

"Just look at that rainbow!" said Miss Oh No.
