1. Introduction

As a person working for the School you may be the first to realise that there could be something seriously wrong within the School. However, you may feel that speaking up would be disloyal to your colleagues or to the School. You may also fear harassment or victimisation. In these circumstances it may be easier to ignore the concern rather than report what may just be a suspicion of malpractice.

Riverside Primary is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, integrity and accountability. We expect employees, and others that we deal with, who have serious concerns about any aspect of the School's work to come forward and voice those concerns. The purpose of this Policy is to make it clear that you can raise your concerns in confidence without fear of victimisation, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. The School encourages you to raise serious concerns in the first instance within the School rather than overlooking a problem or 'blowing the whistle' outside, and we would rather that you raised the matter when it is just a concern rather than waiting for proof.

You should continue to raise appropriate concerns with relevant external agencies such as the Health and Safety Executive, the Audit Commission, and utility regulators. The Policy applies to all employees and those contractors working for the School, for example, agency staff, builders, drivers. The Policy also applies to organisations working in partnership with the School. The Policy has been prepared in response to the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 in accordance with Government guidance on the issue. The Policy has been formally adopted by the School and publicised widely to all those who may wish to use it.

Riverside Primary recognises employees may wish to seek advice and be represented by their trade union representative when raising a concern under the Policy, and acknowledges and endorses the role trade union representatives play in this area. Trade union representatives acting in accordance with the Policy and Procedure will not suffer detriment in their employment with the School.

2. Aims and Scope of the Policy

This policy aims to:

- Encourage you to feel confident in raising serious concerns and to question and act upon concerns
- Provide avenues for you to raise those concerns and receive feedback on any action taken
- Ensure that you receive a response to your concerns and that you are aware of how to pursue them if you are not satisfied
- Reassure you that you will be protected from possible reprisals or victimisation if you have a reasonable belief that you have raised any concern in good faith

The Whistleblowing Policy is intended to cover concerns that fall outside the scope of other procedures, including the corporate complaints procedure. This Policy therefore includes your concerns about:-

- Conduct which is an offence or a breach of law
- Harassment of others*
- Sex, race or disability discrimination against others*
- Disclosures related to miscarriages of justice
- Health and safety risks, including risks to the public as well as other employees
- Damage to the environment
- The unauthorised use of public funds
- Possible fraud and corruption
- Sexual or physical abuse of clients
- Breaches of the School's Standing Orders, and policies
- Anything that makes you feel uncomfortable in terms of known standards, your experience or the standards you believe the School subscribes to; or
- Other unethical or improper conduct (not otherwise included in this list)
- Concealing information about any of these matters

Complaints relating to harassment of, or discrimination against, you will be dealt with under the specific procedures relating to those matters. The Policy applies to all people acting on behalf of the School. It should be emphasised that this Policy is intended to assist individuals who have discovered malpractice or serious wrongdoing, provided they make the disclosure in accordance with the Policy.

It is not designed to question financial or business decisions taken by the Authority nor may it be used to reconsider any matters that have already been addressed under the harassment, complaint or disciplinary procedures. Individuals who make disclosures outside the arrangements set out here will not be protected under this Policy and may not be protected under the Act.

3. The School's Promise to you

- Riverside Primary is committed to good practice and high standards and wants to be supportive of employees and others who work for the School
- Riverside Primary recognises that the decision to report a concern can be a difficult one to make. If you raise your concern based on reasonable belief and in good faith, you have nothing to fear because you will be doing your duty to your employer and the public and The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 will protect you from dismissal or other detriment. If your concern is not confirmed by the investigation, no action will be taken against you. If, however, you make an allegation frivolously, maliciously or for personal gain, disciplinary action may be taken against you

- The School will not tolerate any harassment or victimisation (including informal pressures) and will take appropriate action to protect you when you raise a concern in good faith, even if you are genuinely mistaken in your concerns. Any harassment or victimisation of a whistle blower may result in disciplinary action against the person responsible for the harassment or victimisation
- Any investigations into allegations arising from your whistleblowing will not influence or be influenced by any other personnel procedures to which you may be subject

4. Confidentiality

All concerns will be treated in confidence and every effort will be made not to reveal your identity if you so wish. If we are not able to resolve your concern without revealing your identity (e.g. because your evidence may be needed in Court), we will discuss this with you.

5. Anonymous allegations

This policy encourages you to put your name to your allegation whenever possible.

Concerns expressed anonymously are much less powerful but may be considered by the School taking into account:

- The seriousness of the issues raised
- The credibility of the concern; and
- The likelihood of confirming the allegation from attributable sources

The Headteacher in consultation with Governors will decide in each case whether a complaint made anonymously should be investigated.

6. How to “Whistle blow”

Concern should be expressed to the Headteacher either verbally or in writing in a sealed envelope. If the concern expressed is regarding the Headteacher then contact the Chair of Governors.

Once your complaint has been received, an investigation will take place by a senior member of staff. If the staff code of conduct or safeguarding policies have deemed to have been breached, this may lead to disciplinary action against the member of staff which the complaint was made about.
