

Week 28

Tremulous

LATIN

tremere tremble

LATIN

tremulus

ENGLISH

-OUS

tremulous
early 17th century

Word Class	Adjective
Meaning	Trembling from nervousness or weakness
Examples	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Because her hands are too tremulous to hold a spoon steady, she has to drink soup from a cup.2. Despite his efforts to stay in control of his emotions, his smile was tremulous as he waited to meet his long-lost brother.3. After letting go of her mother's hands, the baby took a few tremulous steps before falling to the floor.
Synonyms for this word	Shaky Unsteady Nervous Weak Wavering