

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. Underline the correct spellings to complete the sentence below.

Mr Royal's class was usually obediant/obedient; he had little tolerance/tolerance for talking in class, but today he didn't seem very observant/observent.

2. "We hope that you are all bubbling with energy from our Flying Fruits sweets and are having a fun-filled morning!"

- a) What is the name of the punctuation mark between fun and filled in the sentence above?

- b) Why has this punctuation mark been used?

3. Insert a pair of commas in the correct place in the sentence below.

Mr Royal usually a strict teacher hadn't noticed that Max and Ted had been whispering.

4. Which sentence contains a relative clause?

Tick one.

He chewed a couple and took a deep breath; then he sat down.

She stood there for a moment, looking puzzled.

Royal seemed to have forgotten she was there and so she hurried to her seat.

“Now, please make your way to the cafeteria, where you will receive more Flying Fruits goodness.”

5. Complete the sentence below by adding a suitable adverbial of time.

_____, there was a crackle on the classroom speakers.