I have great news! The RAFT Summer Fair raised an amazing £1,458.49! What a brilliant achievement. Thank you to everyone who made this possible. The money raised will be used to benefit all children within the Roseberry family. It was lovely to meet some of the parents of our September EYFS intake this week. Once again, I had the opportunity to speak with passion about our fabulous school family. We have a community that cares and the work that goes on within lessons is brilliant. Staff continue to ensure that children learn through fun, both indoors and out! Mrs Channing

Erin took part in a horse show near York last Sunday. She and her horse, Timmy, jumped 1m 25cm! The pictures of her looked amazing! Erin won £100 but shared it with three other riders. What an amazing achievement! Well done, Erin!

As we are approaching the holiday period when many parents look for alternative provision for childcare, here are some important safeguarding questions you may wish to ask providers...

Q: Who is your designated safeguarding lead and what training have they had? How recent was this training? A: They should be able to name a person. Their designated safeguarding leader should have had the training that provides them the knowledge and skills required to carry out their role.

Q: Will anyone besides the instructor be present within the setting while my child is there? If so, will they be there on a regular basis? A: As a rule, they should not have people who are not a part of their organisation at the setting while there are children present. If there will be other people present besides the instructor, they should have a visitors' book where they can sign in and indicate whether they have been DBS checked. They should take care that visitors are never alone with a child in your care.

Q: May I have a copy of your child protection policy? A: You should be able to receive a physical or electronic copy of this on request. Make sure it includes a commitment that under no circumstances should any member of staff inflict corporal or emotional punishment on a child. It should also include a commitment that no disciplinary approaches should be deployed which could cause physical or emotional harm to a child.

Q: My child needs help with: using the toilet; changing; feeding; their medication, etc. How will these personal care needs be addressed? A: While answers will differ on an individual basis and they may not always be able to accommodate personal care needs, they should always be honest and open with you about what the setting can accommodate.

Q: How are you securely storing the information you hold on my child? Who has access to it and are you giving it to anyone else? A: They should be able to detail how they are storing paper and electronic copies of files. If they are storing electronic data, it should be encrypted and password protected. If they are storing paper data, it should be secured with a lock. The designated safeguarding lead, or someone senior enough in the organisation to trust with it, should have access. This information should not be given to other parties without the child's consent (and parental consent if the child is under 13)—with the possible exception of legitimate sharing of safeguarding information with agencies such as Social Care or the Police.

Q: Is my child allowed to access the internet unsupervised and do you have filtering and monitoring systems in place? A: Children should be 13 or older to access the internet unsupervised. Where children are able to access the internet unsupervised, settings should have filtering and monitoring systems in place. These should filter out inappropriate or harmful material and chat rooms.
