We've had another great week of learning - well done, everyone! It was lovely to see so many of you during my assemblies this week and it's great to know that even though we're in different buildings, our school family is still as one. Although we're not fully open yet, the RAFT committee has been busy thinking of ways they are able to help to continue to provide the special extras that school cannot provide alone. Thanks, RAFT!

Thank you!

I'd like to offer HUGE thanks to the adults at home who have continued to support their children's learning throughout lockdown. You are doing an amazing job and we are all so very proud of the work that your children are producing. Three cheers for grown ups!

Texts

As you know, our text system enables us to communicate with you quickly and effectively. We are limited, however, to 160 characters per text and so messages often include only basic information rather than lots of information and they may seem to lack our personal touch. Thanks for your understanding.

The Act of Kindness award for this week goes to Darcie and Sonny who have been giving their Daddy lots of cuddles to help him feel better after his motorbike accident. What lovely, kind, children they are! We hope he is feeling much better soon.

I'd like to offer a MASSIVE thank you to Mr and Mrs Jensen for donating a huge container of hand sanitiser to our school family this week.

Is your child social distancing when you're not around?

We all know how important social distancing is at the moment and that, to date, the 2m rule has not been relaxed. We have put strict measures into school to try to keep everyone safe. Please remind your children that they must social distance at home as well as at school. Thank you!

Home discussion question
Stan asked... If you were winning a running race and your friend fell over just near the finish line, what would you do?

I would like to offer HUGE thanks to our office staff who have done a brilliant job throughout these difficult times. They have worked hard behind the scenes to ensure the smooth running of our school and to support me. They have been AMAZING!
