This week, whilst at home with a nasty bug, I have been able to reflect upon how lucky I am to have such an amazing school family. We know that everyone is working during difficult times, with staff illness resulting in everyone undertaking additional roles; covering playtime and Midday Supervisory duties, opening and locking the school, undertaking some of my duties and, consequently, working even harder than usual. Thank you to our fabulous staff for their hard work and to the brilliant support our parents and families give them every day! I have missed everyone (including Toby) and can't wait to see you all next week! Mrs Channing

Act of Kindness

This week's award goes to Luca Hartley, nominated by Matthew. Matthew said he was on the playground on his own and had no one to play with. He said Luca stopped playing the game he was playing in order to play with Matthew and keep him company. What a lovely thing to do. Well done, Luca. You made Matthew's day!

Lunchtime Award

This week, our lunchtime award goes to our amazing lunch time staff. They do an amazing job day in, day out!

Congratulations, Mrs Rowan!

I am delighted to inform you that Mrs Rowan has, this week, begun her role as Teaching Assistant in Key Stage One. Mrs Rowan is already a fully qualified Teaching Assistant and so has hit the ground running! She has been busy helping children to learn and practise basic phonics and maths skills. The children already know Mrs Rowan, as she is one of our super Midday Supervisory Assistants. She now has two important roles to play within our school family!

Book awards!

Did you know that for every 20 books you read (these must be listed in your reading record, which an adult at home needs to sign for you), you may receive a certificate? Every certificate has a different design and there are lots to collect! If you are reading a chapter book, each book is worth 2 books. It would take you a very long time to earn a certificate otherwise and wouldn't be very fair!

Please remember that if you don't enjoy reading, it's just that you haven't found the right book for you yet. There's a book out there for everyone!

Great manners are always spotted!

Well done to those children who are always beautifully behaved, polite, kind and well mannered - I'm delighted to say that there are lots of you! You are a pleasure to have in school and we feel very proud of you every day. Good manners never go unnoticed by the adults within our school and the visitors we show around. Keep it up, folks!

Beating the winter blues!

It's common for us to feel sluggish and more lethargic over the winter months. We often find ourselves setting off to school or work when it's dark and coming home when it's dark. As sunlight helps our bodies to regulate sleep, the reduced hours of daylight can have an impact on our sleeping patterns. Getting out in natural light during the day, maintaining a regular sleep/wake schedule, exercising during the day and reducing our use of electronic devices before bedtime can all help to improve the quality of our sleep.

The Sleep Charity (www.thesleepcharity.org.uk) has produced guidelines which are aimed at increasing or maintaining good sleep health and show how making a few changes to our routines can make a difference to wellbeing. Why not take a look at their website?
