Home discussion question
Stan asked... If you discovered a new planet, what would you call it and why?

What I love about Roseberry is that everyone loves to learn. Our after school staff training this week was delivered by ARC Adoption NE and focussed upon recognising and meeting the needs of adopted children.

I have seen some amazing writing this week, witnessing first hand the impact of the promotion of high quality and challenging vocabulary within classes. I have also had the privilege of talking to children about their knowledge and understanding of a range of subjects across the curriculum. They are able to make links between prior and current learning, proving that our curriculum and the way in which adults teach is successful in enabling children to know more and remember more!

Are you bored with your board games?

If you have board games at home that you don't play with any more, Miss Burley's class would love to receive them! They have decided that they would like to play board games together as one of their Golden Time activities. If you are happy to donate a game, please ensure that all of the pieces are with the game! Thank you!

Lunchtime Award

This week, our lunchtime award goes to Lloyd Bulman and Robert Clemmit.

A whole school act of kindness!

Last week we recorded our school family singing Happy Birthday to Edna, a lovely lady in a Glasgow care home who is about to celebrate her 101st birthday, having spent her 100th birthday alone during lockdown. Radio 2's Zoe Ball was so impressed with our children's singing that she played it on her breakfast show on Tuesday morning! What a treat, hearing our Roseberry family on the radio as I drove to work! If you missed the programme and would like to hear it, you can do so via the BBC Sounds app. If you find Tuesday's breakfast show, our performance is 1.09minutes into the show!

What can we play when there's no football allowed?

As you know, we don't allow children to play football when the weather is wet and there's mud everywhere. Wouldn't it be a lovely idea if children could research playground games and teach them to their friends? Why not ask grown ups at home what they used to play when they were at school?

Act of Kindness

This week, this award goes to Evie Bint and Hudson Blair, for being good friends to others. It also goes to Nevaeh Langan and Jakey Langan for spending their time drawing beautiful pictures to share with members of our Roseberry family!

What has Toby (with his new haircut) seen this week?

This week, Toby has noticed that there has been far less litter on the grass near the playground bins. Well done for trying hard to ensure that rubbish is disposed of correctly, folks, and making sure that our school grounds look tidy!

Spring meals menu

Our cook, Nahed, is in the process of designing a new menu for school meals and would like to tailor it to reflect what our children like to eat. Each class is, therefore, being asked for their suggestions for meat and vegetarian options and Nahed will work with Assistant Cook, Amanda, to consider these.

I wonder what will be on the menu when we return after the half term holiday?!

School meals

Please remember that you must order your child's school meal via the My Child At School app, even if you don't have to pay for their meals. If your child does not have a meal choice entered, we expect them to have a packed lunch with them, please.

VACANCY

Please remember, we have two vacancies at the moment. This is a great opportunity to join our lovely Roseberry family. We have vacancies for a Midday Supervisor and a Kitchen Assistant. Please visit the vacancies page of our school website for more information: www.roseberryacademy.org

VACANCY

Lateness = missed learning!

It's lovely to greet children at the gate each morning but I am becoming increasingly concerned by the number of children arriving after registration. This means that they are entering the classroom late (which can be embarrassing for a child) and missing out upon learning at the start of the day (which can make children feel worried or uncomfortable).

The register is taken at 8.55am in each class. Please ensure that your child is in school on time so that they start the day relaxed, happy and ready to learn. Thank you!

GOOD MANNERS and KINDNESS ARE ALWAYS IN FASHION

Lovely manners!

It's been lovely to see children opening doors for one another, and adults, this week. I have also heard children saying please and thank you, which has been super!

Remember, children, it's polite to say 'pardon?', rather than 'what?' when you need someone to repeat something!

Please note that the police are operating a zero tolerance approach towards drivers who choose to ignore parking regulations, and will be issuing fines accordingly.
