We've had a great week! On Wednesday, we invited four staff from other schools to come and see our fabulous curriculum in action. They were amazed at what they saw! Every child in every class was engaged with their learning. Behaviour was excellent and the standard of work children produced was superb I felt so very proud of our school family as we visited each classroom. On Thursday, Y3/4 children experienced a Meet the Greeks workshop, delivered virtually by Durham University. They learned lots of interesting facts! Finally, I've seen some lovely, caring behaviour during lunch times this week. Well done, folks! Mrs Channing

Act of Kindness

This week, this award goes to Tyler Morgan. He is kind, caring and has the most beautiful manners! It also goes to Evelyn Rice who has been a caring friend.

What is bullying?

From time to time, children may state that they are being bullied. It is really important that we take this seriously, but also that we take time to understand what they mean when they say 'being bullied'. It's important that we have a shared understanding within our school community of what bullying is.

The Anti Bullying Alliance states that, 'Bullying is the repetitive, intentional hurting of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power. It can happen face to face or online.'

Falling out with friends, being tackled during football or children not sharing equipment at playtime may be upsetting for children, but cannot be classed as 'bullying'.

We believe every member of our school family, regardless of gender, sexuality, faith, culture or socio-economic background has a right to 'feel welcome and safe, which in relation to bullying means we work to:

- provide a happy and secure environment for all our pupils so they may feel safe at all times
- develop a mutual respect for each other so that pupils and adults alike will treat each other with consideration and tolerance
- through a broad curriculum including PHSCE -Personal, Social, Health and Citizenship Education to enable children to fulfil their potential and help develop their self worth so that everyone will feel valued as a member of our school community
- identify possible children at risk (including risk of radicalisation or extremist views and/or material) and to monitor and assist them, if necessary, involving parents to help prevent bullying
- deal with bullying incidents in a swift, firm and decisive manner (showing children, we find this behaviour unacceptable)

Talking with children about the difference between unkind behaviour, falling out and bullying, so that they have a good understanding of the difference between these, is a worthwhile thing to do - Stan's discussion question for this week may just spark a conversation!

Please book your child's school meals via MCAS by midnight on Saturday. The menu will be locked on Sunday!

Thank you, Councillor Moorhouse!

I am delighted that Councillor Heather Moorhouse's bid for additional funding for ICT equipment for our school has been successful. This amount will enable us to purchase four additional laptops for children who struggle to access online learning at home. What great news!

What has Toby seen this week?

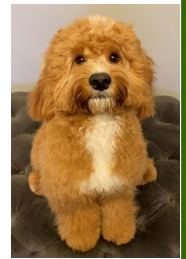

This week, Toby has been very impressed with how hard children have worked on their assessments.

Children across the school have completed tests and quizzes to see how much of their learning they have remembered and demonstrate how well they are able to use their knowledge and skills!

Toby was really proud of those children who tried their best and persevered, even when they found things tricky.

Children are given tests from time to time so that teachers are able to see gaps in their learning, using this information to plan future lessons.

Well done, everyone!
