It's been a week of sharing our great practice! On Wednesday, five staff from the Enquire Learning Trust visited to carry out an Enquiry Walk in school, looking at children's work, speaking with children, exploring the learning environment and seeing great teaching. They were very impressed with what they found and enjoyed being welcomed into the Roseberry family. On Wednesday and Thursday evening, teachers had the privilege of sharing children's achievements and targets for the future with their parents. It was lovely to see so many people in the hall, looking through their children's books and feeling proud!

Mrs Channing

A wonderful world book day!

My face hurt from smiling on Thursday morning as I welcomed children onto the playground. Instead of Roseberry uniforms, I was met with an array of characters from a wide range of books. The time and effort spent creating and sourcing children's costumes was well worth it - the children looked amazing and were clearly proud of parents' efforts! As I walked around school throughout the day, there was a real buzz of excitement but, amazingly, children were still able to concentrate upon their learning.

How good is that?!

Learning about Fairtrade

Thank you to the Co-op for visiting school this week to talk to our older children about Fairtrade. I wonder how many Fairtrade products you can see during one trip to the Co-op?

Anyone for pancakes?

Children in EYFS, Year One and Year Two had a great time at the annual village schools' Pancake Races this week, held on the High Green. Thank you to everyone who worked hard to organize the event, volunteers and staff who supervised and encouraged the children, the Co-op for donating 200 crème eggs and our children for being fabulous!

Brilliant Book Fair!

Thank you to everyone who supported our Book Fair this week and to Mrs Davies for organising it! It's lovely to see children enthused by books - there's nothing better than snuggling down with a good book at the end of a busy day! The commission we earn from sales will be spent on new books for our school library.

Summer Fair ~ we need your help!
