COMMUNITY

Last week, Year 4 went on a trip to the Museum of London to visit the Roman gallery as part of their history topic. We saw the original Londinium wall and handled many Roman artefacts. It was a great experience and we learnt a lot about the Ancient Romans and the legacy of the Roman Empire.

COMMUNITY

14th March 2020, 11am-12noon.

Join author and illustrator Nathan Bryon and Dapo Adeola for an out-of-this-world event about their debut picture book 'Look Up'!

WELLIES

Gardening Club has asked for families to donate any unwanted/old wellies they might have for a project the Gardening Club are working on.

NO NUTS

Please be mindful when making packed lunches/snack boxes that we do not allow nuts or nut products like Nutella on the premises. This is to safeguard and protect our children with allergies.

GUITAR LESSONS

This week Year 5 went to the Horniman Museum and visited the Aquarium. They really enjoyed the trip and were fascinated to see models of endangered animals and animals that have already become extinct. They loved exploring the Aquarium and seeing the poison dart frogs, the clown fish and studying the aquatic environments from around the globe.

RECEPTION

Reception children have been enjoying their computer lessons this term.

SCHOOL LUNCHES

The cost of school meals for the next half term will be £69.00. Please ensure you pay for your meals in advance via ParentPay. If you require ParentPay log in details, please email the school office on: admin@rusheygreen.lewisham.sch.uk
Thank you, School Office

The poster for the Wellbeing Coffee Morning features the Rushey Green Primary School logo and the RGSA logo. The text reads: "Wellbeing Coffee Morning Friday 14th February 9am -11am". Below this, it says: "We know taking care of yourself is often a last thought for parents and carers in our busy lives, but come and be pampered and find out how to maintain a state of wellness. Come and access advice on maintaining good mental health and where to go if you need support." The poster also lists activities: "*Facials", "*Head massage", "Healthy eating advice", "Try our healthy food samples and smoothies", and "Yoga session". A "Free pampering gift" is offered. At the bottom, it states "Activities are free" and "limited spaces available". The poster is decorated with red hearts and a red ribbon.

MEXICO CLASS

3J have been learning about fossils. We learnt about the different types of fossils you can find and how they are formed. In class, we had a go at making our own fossils. Can you tell which animal each fossil is meant to be?
