Rye College Press Club

We are delighted to share news of an exciting new community initiative we are launching in collaboration with Rye News, the 'go to' local community paper for Rye and surrounding villages.

Rye News is offering a journalistic training programme and publishing platform for Rye College students. The Press Club will provide opportunities for students to develop their journalistic skills, writing articles for Rye News: giving our young people a voice within and across their community.

- ▶ Place rubbish in the bin - we have plenty. Taking a moment to use the bin helps protect wildlife.
- ▶ If you think an area isn't covered let us know and we will aim to cover the area.
- ▶ Any act of vandalism results in a bill being sent home to your family. Charges will be pursued.
- ▶ The college has limited resources and replacing is a waste. Help us, help you.

Year 9 Group Guidance with MFSH

- ▶ All students in Year 9 will receive a group guidance discussion, in groups of 4
- ▶ These have been organised in form groups and cannot be changed
- ▶ Form Tutors have a copy of the times/locations
- ▶ The information is also on display outside Mr Harrison/Mrs Starkey's office
- ▶ These interviews are to support your decision making in making your KS4 choices and to encourage you to consider your aspirations for the future
- ▶ Please ensure you attend your appointment, on time, and engage with the adviser to get the most out of it

Uniform reminder

- ▶ No hoodies
- ▶ No leggings
- ▶ No coats in lessons
- ▶ Blazers MUST be worn around school, (unless during break) into classrooms and out of classrooms. You may remove once you sit down
