Christmas Lunch – Wednesday 7th Dec

Book your place

All families have been emailed a letter with an online booking form to reserve your place at our Christmas Lunch.

Please see poster for timings and menu choices.

All meals must be reserved by Wednesday 30th November – you will not be able to attend the lunch if your booking form hasn't been completed by this date. Please note other food will not be available during 2nd break.

This will be a Christmas themed non uniform day (please wear your Christmas jumpers!) in return for a food donation item for Rye Food bank. This will be coordinated by tutor groups, week commencing 5th December.

Don't miss out on the festive fun!!!

The poster is for a Christmas Lunch event at Rye College. It features a red border with white Christmas decorations like snowflakes, holly leaves, and snow globes. At the top left is the Rye College crest, which depicts a sailing ship and the motto 'CREATING BRIGHT FUTURES FOR ALL'. At the top right is a green circular badge with white text that reads 'Christmas themed non uniform day in return for a food bank donation'. The main title 'Christmas Lunch' is written in a large, stylized font, with 'Christmas' in red and 'Lunch' in green. Below the title, it says 'We're delighted to be hosting traditional Christmas Lunch in the canteen with music and festive fun!'. A green rectangular box contains the date 'Wednesday 7th December'. Below this, the timings are listed: '12.15 - 1pm Year 7 & 8' and '1.30 - 2.20pm Year 9,10 & 11'. The menu is divided into 'Mains' and 'Dessert'. The mains options are 'Roasted turkey or roasted vegetable and cranberry slice (V) Served with roast potatoes, parsnips, sprouts, peas, carrots, stuffing, mini sausage and gravy' and 'Or choice of panini - Roasted turkey and traditional stuffing or Brie with cranberry sauce (V)'. The dessert is 'Festive chocolate and orange brownie'. The price is listed as '£2.55 to be paid on the day'. At the bottom, it states 'To allow for planning and ordering - the online form to request a Christmas lunch MUST be completed by families no later than Wednesday 30th November' and includes a note in parentheses: '(The canteen will be open as normal for 1st break, other food will not be available 2nd break from the canteen or cubs)'.

Students' sporting success

- ▶ Braydon in Year 10 competed in the Judo Tipperary Open 2022. He had 4 strong fights winning 3 out of the 4. Braydon managed to come away with silver. He and his kata partner were also up for a British Judo Association national award and became Southern Area Award Winners.

- ▶ James in Year 10 plays cricket for Rye CC under 15s, Rye CC III adults and also for Winchelsea Town CC. James has been selected for trials with the Southern Spartans under 16 team. At the end of this season James played his best match against Mountfield CC where he took 5 wickets for 19 runs as well as catching another out in the field. James was rewarded for this achievement and is pictured here with a former Head boy of Rye College, James Jury (photo permission received)

- ▶ Well done to Braydon and James - we are very proud of your achievements

Year 11 Notices

- ▶ 1:1 interviews continue this week on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday
- ▶ Teaching staff have been emailed the appointment times and info is also outside the Learning Directors' office
- ▶ You must turn up for your appointment on time - PLEASE DO NOT FORGET!

WE ARE COMMITTED

- ▶ We are looking for students to join new Maths Circles in January 2023. If you are in Year 7 or 8, a keen mathematician, and are committed to participating in weekly Maths Circles sessions, then please see Mrs Harrison or your Maths Teacher.
- ▶ What is a Maths Circle?
- ▶ In a Maths Circle, each week a small group of students come together to be mathematicians together.
- ▶ In Circle sessions you will:
- ▶ Grapple with, and sometimes (but not always!) solve, intriguing questions
- ▶ Discover and explore exciting ideas
- ▶ Learn to think like a university mathematician - Sometimes think on your own, sometimes think in a team
- ▶ Usually your Circle will be after-school and last about an hour. There will be ten Circle sessions each term
- ▶ Some Circles meet each week in a school with a teacher, some Circles meet each week online - You can tell us what you prefer.
- ▶ Maths Circles are completely free if you are a student at a secondary school in the UK.
