Writing competition – Thank A Teacher Day

- 19th June is 'Thank a teacher day'
- Using the link, (or google search Thank a teacher competition) you can send a free e-card to thank your teacher or member of support staff
- In addition to this, you can write a poem or story and email it in to the website to be in with a chance of winning a £50 book voucher
- All entries will be judged by Michael Morpurgo
- <https://thankateacher.co.uk/our-competitions/>

Sir Michael Morpurgo's Writing Competition

Do you love writing stories or poems? Here's your chance to shine and show appreciation to those who make a difference in your school! The lucky winner will receive £50 in book vouchers, and a shout out from Sir Michael Morpurgo himself!

To get involved, all you have to do is:

- Send a thank you card to your favourite teacher / support staff member.
- Write a short story or poem about them.
- Send us an email with a Word document of your poem/story with a couple of sentences explaining why you want to thank this teacher by clicking the button below!

Thank you to our Students

WE ARE PROUD

Last week, we welcomed 50 prospective families into our school on our Year 5 Open Mornings. Our Student Leaders and Student Ambassadors led families on live tours of our school. Student Leadership

This week as we don't have much news regarding the student leadership team here's a fun fact from each member so you can know them better. Next week we will tell you about what our roles are and what changes we are interested in working on.

- Jessica Hilder - Favourite subject is English as they enjoy writing and analysing texts
- Morgan Collins - Likes football
- Wilma Boddy - Is bilingual, speaks English and Swedish
- Riley King - Likes Science
- Isabel Hayward - Loves otters as they hold hands while sleeping so they don't float away
- Oliwier Zimirski - Plays the piano
- Frankie Gall - Likes football
- Summer Mchenry - Enjoys reading and drawing in their spare time
- Freddy Hesmer - Is a first aider
- Thomas Breen - Likes football
- Lucie Broome - Has a job and enjoys working there in their spare time
