The L in LGBT+: Celebrating Pride Month

- Until the 90s, the acronym used the LGBT+ community was usually GLBT
- However, this all changed during the AIDS crisis
- Many lesbians supported gay men who were sick during the AIDS crisis when others were too afraid to help
- Moving the L first was a sign of increased solidarity between the lesbian and gay communities
- There was a recognition that the gay rights movement had often been focused mostly on gay men, with other LGBT+ people being excluded

Mobile Phone Rules

- ▶ This applies to lessons and breaktimes
- ▶ Mobile phones should be switched off and kept inside bags or coats - not on desks or in skirt/trouser pockets
- ▶ If you need to urgently contact someone at home, please go to Student Hub or reception and they will support you to do so
- ▶ If you are seen using a phone you will be asked to put it away
- ▶ If you continue to use it, the phone will be confiscated and you will be given a detention

Food Tech Room

- ▶ This is out of bounds at break and lunchtime
- ▶ The only exception is if they have just had a lesson and are finishing off
- ▶ This is due to students treating it like a common room, taking ingredients etc
- ▶ Mr Werrett needs a break!

School Entrance/Exit

No Entry

Students please enter school
via the back gate

- ▶ Students should only enter the school site via the back gate
- ▶ Only students with permission to do so, or students arriving at school after 9am (who need to be signed in) can enter school via reception.
- ▶ We also ask that students who are dropped to school by car in the morning are dropped off in the Freedom Leisure Centre car park, not the Rye College visitor and staff car park.
- ▶ The back gate should also be used for leaving school
- ▶ The only reason for leaving via reception is if you are being collected for an appointment during the school day
