Like you, Sony cares deeply about sustainability and, of course, we all share a passion for photography!

We're combining these aspects to bring you a competition to enable you to demonstrate your photography skills and your passion for helping your local community.

- ▶ Theme: 'Preserving the Planet'
- ▶ Entries: Up to two per student
- ▶ Size: 2MB minimum
- ▶ Description: One sentence on the significance of the photo to you
- ▶ Closing Date: 12th January 2024
- ▶ Submit to: Mrs Charlton-Matthews
- ▶ All photographs will be judged by a panel of experts featuring Sony's digital imaging experts, Tom Oldham (professional photographer) and Mrs Charlton-Matthews.
- ▶ The winner will be announced in February. Winning Photo On behalf of the winner, Sony will donate £250 to 'Trillion Trees', a project that WWF supports and which seeks to repopulate the world's trees and combat climate change. See <https://trilliontrees.org> for more details.
- ▶ Plus: • A framed A3 print of the winning image for the winner to keep • A framed print for the school to display
- ▶ We also encourage all competition entrants to enter photos to the Sony World Photography Awards Youth Competition. See <https://www.worldphoto.org/sony-world-photography-awards/youth> for more details. Good luck!
