Dear Parents and Families,

RE: Election of a Parent member of the Rye Primary Aquinas Advisory Council (RPAAC)

At the Rye Advisory Body meeting on Wednesday 1st May 2019 it was agreed that Rye Primary will move to the standard Aquinas Advisory Council (AAC) structure from September 2019. Our existing parent elected member, Caroline Drummond, has been asked to stay on as a Trust appointee. This means we need to hold another round of elections for a new parent elected member for Rye Primary.

I am writing to you to invite you to stand for election as a parent member of the RPAAC or nominate another parent to do so. We have provision for 1 elected parent member. No special qualifications are needed; the most important thing is to have a keen interest, and be prepared to play an active part in, the RPAAC's work (exact remit still to be finalised).

The enclosed sheet summarises the circumstances under which someone cannot serve as a member. In addition, parents/carers who have paid employment in the school for 500 or more hours per academic year are not eligible to stand in these elections. Nominations must be from parents or carers with children at the school on the day that nominations close.

If you would like to stand for election, please complete the attached nomination form and return it to the school (marked for the attention of Mrs S Ball) no later than 12 noon, Friday, 7th June 2019. You may also include a short personal statement to support your nomination, which should be no longer than 250 words. Self-nominations will be accepted, but if you are nominating another parent, please seek their prior consent.

If the number of candidates nominated is equal to the number of vacancies those individuals will be elected unopposed. If there are more nominations, an election will take place by secret ballot. If that is necessary, voting papers will be sent to all parents together with details of the ballot procedure.

Yours sincerely,

Miss K Martin
