

Read, (research) and organise the timeline (see next page) showing chronology of Roman events, between 753 BC to AD 476 with particular focus on dates when the Romans were in Britain. Sequence events, battles, invasion and particular individuals. Include the year of Jesus' birth.

Now watch

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/history-ks2-the-roman-empire-and-its-effects-on-britain/zrvs382>

Make some notes using a spider diagram while you are watching

Activity: Order events on a timeline

455 AD
Vandals destroy
Rome

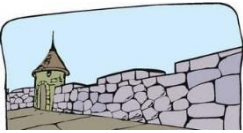

1,453 AD
Eastern empire
falls to the Turks

410 AD
Roman rule in Britain ends

61 AD
Boudicca's rebellion

122 AD
Begin building
Hadrian's wall

0 BC / AD
Jesus is born

753 BC
Building of Rome begins

510 BC
Rome becomes a republic

130 BC
Conquer Greece
and most of Spain

235 - 285 AD
Over 20 Roman emperors killed

AD 43
Romans invade
Britain

200 AD
Barbarians attack
the Roman Empire

71 AD
Romans conquer
northern England