

LI: Use Prepositions

Introduction

Use prepositions to describe the position of people or objects in the picture below.

Introduction

Use prepositions to describe the position of people or objects in the picture below.

Various answers, for example:
The statues are behind the rope.
The book is near the painting.
The painting is on the wall.

Varied Fluency 1

Underline the noun in the sentence below.

They sat happily among the flowers.

Varied Fluency 1

Underline the noun in the sentence below.

They sat happily among the flowers.

Varied Fluency 2

Circle the preposition in the sentence below.

The water fountain is near the town hall.

Varied Fluency 2

Circle the preposition in the sentence below.

The water fountain is near the town hall.

Varied Fluency 3

Sort the nouns and prepositions into the table below.

across

after bread

snake

behind

church

Nouns	Prepositions

Varied Fluency 3

Sort the nouns and prepositions into the table below.

Nouns	Prepositions
bread	across
snake	after church	behind

Varied Fluency 4

Use a preposition from the word bank to complete the sentence.

beyond

off

since

I have known Andrew _____ last year.

Varied Fluency 4

Use a preposition from the word bank to complete the sentence.

beyond

off

since

I have known Andrew since last year.

Reasoning 1

Does the preposition make sense in the sentence below?

The children walked carefully across
the busy main road.

Explain your reasoning.

Yes because...

Reasoning 1

Does the preposition make sense in the sentence below?

The children walked carefully across
the busy main road.

Explain your reasoning.

Yes because 'across' shows where the children were in relation to the busy main road.