

Pupils can recognise how images in the media, including online do not always reflect reality and can affect how people feel about themselves.

Pupils can explain what sexual intercourse is and how this leads to reproduction, using the correct terms to describe the male and female sexual organs.

Pupils realise the nature and consequences of discrimination, including the use of prejudice based language.

Pupils know some cultural practices are against British law and universal human rights, including female genital mutilation (FGM).

Pupils have an awareness that infections can be shared during sexual intercourse and that a condom can help to prevent this.

Pupils develop the confidence and skills to know when, who and how to ask for help independently or with support.
