Foundation Stage Termly Fees for Sacred Heart School with effect from 1st September 2024 including free time* provided under the Early Years Education Entitlement (EYEE) Scheme

- Children can receive EYEE starting from the term after a child's second birthday until they reach compulsory school age (i.e. they enter Reception class).
- 15 hours EYEE is the standard entitlement for all children in the term after their third birthday. This eligibility is means tested for parents of 2 year olds, whereas 30 hours EYEE may be available to working parents subject to means testing.
- EYEE is limited to a maximum of 3 hours per session and 6 hours per school day. Additional hours may be used for Busy Bees sessions.
- A morning session can be extended to 1pm to include lunch at an additional cost of £130 per morning per term.

The Nursery fees are made up of a standard hourly rate of £5.42 which may be covered by the Early Years Funding and a care package rate of £3.12 per hour. The care package includes, but is not exhaustive to: Qualified and Specialist Teachers; snacks; craft activities & materials; personal care; consumables
