7. Protection of children

The school is required under law and guidance to check the criminal background of all employees. Decisions to appoint will be subject to consideration of an enhanced disclosure, including a Barred List check, from the Disclosure and Barring Service. Because of the nature of the work for which you are applying, this post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013). The amendments to the Exception Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Further guidance on 'protected' convictions and cautions can be found at <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/dbs-filtering-guidance>

You will be required to disclose when shortlisted for an interview all information about any convictions in a Court of Law or any cautions that are not protected, so that a police check can be carried out if you are offered an appointment. If you are subsequently employed by the school and it is found that you failed to disclose any previous convictions or cautions, this could result in dismissal, or disciplinary action being taken by the school.

During the course of your employment at St Michael's should you be arrested by the police you are obliged to notify the Headteacher of this immediately (even if de-arrested or all charges dropped). Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action being taken which could result in dismissal. All information will be treated in confidence and will only be considered in relation to any application for posts for which the exemption order applies.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
