This half term's bible

DEPUTY LIEUTENANT OF LANCASHIRE VISIT TO MARK TO ASCENSION OF QUEEN ELIZABETH II - 4/2/22

Next Friday the Deputy Lieutenant of Lancashire (Ralph Assheton) is visiting school to talk to the children about the ascension of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II who will have reigned for 60 years on the 6th February. As Head of State the Queen is the key element of our governmental system and someone who not only champions British Values but is a shining example of them. Also, as Queen, she is also the Head of the Church of England and as such has also been an example of consistent spiritual leadership and again, someone who truly lives out what she believes as a Christian.

In the summer term we will be celebrating the Platinum Jubilee, along with the whole country, with a special day in school before the May half term.

INFANTS: Well done to Muhammad (Y1) for achieving his Bronze Year 1 Reading Award and to Leo (Y1) for achieving his Silver Year 1 Reading Award.
