NEWSLETTER

25/01/2019

FOSS NEWS - On Tuesday FOSS met for their Spring meeting and have planned lots of fab activities for the coming term. See Diary Dates for details. If you'd like to know more about FOSS, Sue Redmayne, Mark Barkworth and Jo Taylor would love to have a chat with you and tell you how you can be part of the parents group.

VALUES HOMEWORK - A reminder that values homework needs to be in at the start of next week by the latest if your child hasn't already completed it. Thank you.

SPORTS NEWS: SMALL SCHOOLS ATHLETICS FINAL - On Tuesday this week our athletics team competed at Lostock Hall Academy and did us proud! They competed in a range of indoor track and field events. A massive well done to them all for representing school so well and for coming 4th in the competition!

CHANGE 4 LIFE BOOKLETS - Today your child will have brought home a Change 4 Life booklet. This is a government publication for children, which goes out to all Primary Schools in January. It's full of great ideas, games and information for living healthier lives; this year it's focus is on reducing the amount of sugar children consume. It's well worth a read and is fun to do.

GREENHOUSE & GARDEN AREA: STAGE 2 OF ITS DEVELOPMENT 26TH JANUARY 9.30am start until around 12.00pm - If you are coming on Saturday morning, and if you have one, please could you bring a spade. Also, if you have a pair of rubberised gardening gloves you may find it useful to bring these too.

YEAR 3/4 ADVANCE NOTICE - This term they are studying the Ancient Egyptians. As part of this the class will be having a dress up day later in the term. Mrs Quayle hasn't got a date yet but thought you may like to have plenty of warning to get creative!

CAR PARK - For around the next month there will be a container in the corner which belongs to the workmen who are working on one of the windows in church. Please could we ask that everyone park as efficiently as possible during this time. Thank you.
