Red Nose Day Friday 19th March

COMIC RELIEF

It's Red Nose Day on Friday and we are asking the children to come in non-school uniform or dressed as a superhero of their choice and bring a donation.

We will be having lots of fun with a use your brain power class quiz session, and vote for your best class joke which we will share with other classes via zoom!

Each child will also be able to design their own super hero mask!

Q. Why do you never see elephants hiding in trees?

A. Because they are really good at it.

Wonderland Models and Performance Art

Thank you for all your entries! We were overwhelmed with the entries to our World Book day 'Wonderland' competition. The winners came home with a prize last week. We haven't forgotten your afternoon teas- they will be winging their way to you very soon.

National Shakespeare Week

Dates for the Diary

Return to school

It's been National Shakespeare week this week and lots of classes have been getting involved. Shakespeare Week is a national annual celebration giving primary school aged children opportunities for enriching and enjoyable early experiences of Shakespeare for people of all ages and stages of interest. We will be sharing some photos via Facebook and the website of some of the things we have been getting up to.
