

Sleepover Club Highlights

We started the New Year with a Children's Meeting.

Pupils have the opportunity to share their views and concerns. They feel valued that their voice is being heard.

Once the meeting was over, pupils were able to choose their activities. One young person experienced the vibrating mat for the first time.

