Sleepover Club Highlights

A group of musicians from local schools have kindly visited us every night this week, to entertain the pupils and to allow them to experience the different musical instruments. They enjoyed learning about them and having a go at playing them,

