THIS WEEK IN SLEEPOVER CLUB

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas -

We have enjoyed getting Sleepover ready for our Christmas activities - decorating the Christmas tree and putting up lots of different decorations.

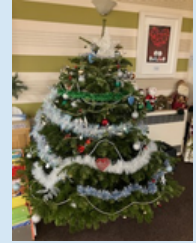

Christmas trip to The Illuminated Arboretum

Some of us have been out on a trip to The National Memorial Arboretum, in Alrewas, to explore their illuminated arboretum. We all had a great time exploring the different lights.

Christmas dinner -

We have enjoyed Christmas dinner this week!

PLACEMENT REVIEWS

We are in the process of completing and sending out placement reviews for Sleepover Club. Please have a read of these and take time to fill in and return the parent and pupil questionnaires included in this paperwork. Thank you!

WHAT WE HAVE ENJOYED

Arts and crafts -

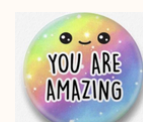

We have enjoyed making some different decorations, to hang around Sleepover Club.

DON'T MISS THIS!

SLEEPOVER CLUB OFSTED REPORT -

We are so proud and happy to share with you our amazing Ofsted report for Sleepover Club! Please see the link on our website for more details - <https://www.saxonhillacademy.org.uk/news/2025-11-16-sleepover-club-celebrates-17th-consecutive-outstanding-ofsted-result>

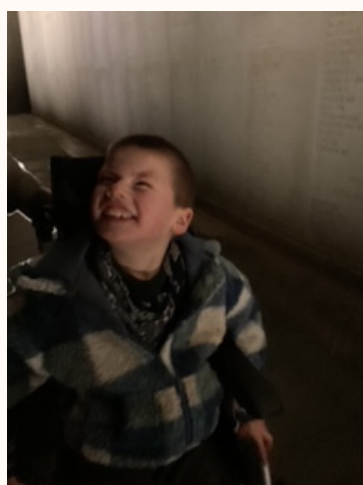

WHAT WE HAVE ENJOYED

We have had a lovely trip to the illuminated arboretum at Alrewas. We all enjoyed exploring the different colours of the lights.

WHAT WE HAVE ENJOYED

Christmas activities - Decorating the Christmas tree

We have enjoyed exploring lots of Christmas resources, decorating Sleepover for Christmas and decorating our Christmas tree.

WHAT WE HAVE ENJOYED

Christmas activities - Christmas Dinner

We have enjoyed a Christmas dinner at Sleepover Club this week. We would like to thank Michelle our cook for the lovely Christmas dinners that she has cooked for us!

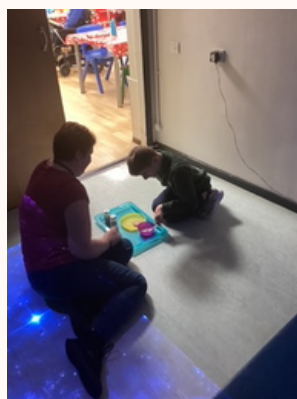

WHAT WE HAVE ENJOYED

Christmas Activities - Making Christmas cookies

We have explored the different ingredients that go into making biscuits and have made Christmas cookies. We have chosen different toppings to add to our cookies.
