Academic Year	Sept 2020-Aug 21	Total Catch-Up Premium	£ 16,400	Number of pupils	205

Guidance

Children and young people across the country have experienced unprecedented disruption to their education, as a result of coronavirus (COVID-19). Those from the most vulnerable and disadvantaged backgrounds will be among those hardest hit. The aggregate impact of lost time in education will be substantial, and the scale of our response must match the scale of the challenge.

Schools' allocations will be calculated on a per pupil basis, providing each mainstream school with a total of £80 for each pupil in years reception through to 11.

As the catch-up premium has been designed to mitigate the effects of the unique disruption caused by coronavirus (COVID-19), the grant will only be available for the 2020 to 2021 academic year. It will not be added to schools' baselines in calculating future years' funding allocations.

Use of Funds	EEF Recommendations
Schools should use this funding for specific activities to support their pupils to catch up for lost teaching over the previous months, in line with the guidance on curriculum expectations for the next academic year. Schools have the flexibility to spend their funding in the best way for their cohort and circumstances. To support schools to make the best use of this funding, the Education Endowment Foundation (EEF) has published a coronavirus (COVID-19) support guide for schools with evidence-based approaches to catch up for all students. Schools should use this document to help them direct their additional funding in the most effective way.	The EEF advises the following: Teaching and whole school strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☐ Supporting great teaching ☐ Pupil assessment and feedback ☐ Transition support Targeted approaches <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☐ One to one and small group tuition ☐ Intervention programmes ☐ Extended school time Wider strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ☐ Supporting parent and carers ☐ Access to technology ☐ Summer support

Identified impact of lockdown
Maths	Specific content has been missed, leading to gaps in learning and stalled sequencing of journeys. Children still have an appetite for maths and lockdown has not significantly affected the attitudes of most pupils, however they are quite simply, 'behind'. Recall of basic skills has suffered – children are not able to recall addition facts, times tables and have forgotten once taught calculation strategies. This is reflected in age specific assessments undertaken in September and ongoing teacher assessment
Writing	Children haven't necessarily missed 'units' of learning in the same way as Maths, however they have lost essential practising of writing skills. SPAG specific knowledge has suffered, leading to lack of fluency in writing. Those who maintained writing throughout lockdown are affected less, although they still are to some degree. However those who evidently didn't write much during lockdown, are having to work extra hard, both on increasing writing stamina but also improving their motivation to write, due to the lack of writing fluency.
Reading	Children accessed reading during lockdown more than any other subject. This is something that was more accessible for families and required less teacher input. However, the gap between those children that read widely and those children who didn't/don't is now increasingly wide. Many children are less fluent in their reading, stamina has decreased and the bottom 20% of readers have been disproportionately badly affected.
Non-core	There are now significant gaps in knowledge – whole units of work have not been able to have been taught, meaning that children are less able to recall prior learning in order to be able to apply it to new content. They are less likely to make connections between concepts and themes throughout the curriculum. Children have also missed out on our planned curriculum experiences e.g. trips, visitors, 'wow' curriculum moments and wide range of extra-curricular opportunities.

Planned expenditure - The headings below are grouped into the categories outlined in the Education Endowment Foundation's coronavirus support guide for schools)

i. Teaching and whole-school strategies

Desired outcome	Chosen approach and anticipated cost	Impact (once reviewed)	Staff lead	Review date?
Supporting great teaching: Despite the limitations placed on schools in terms of use of physical resources and the sharing of them, manipulatives are regularly used in Maths and this supports acquisition of basic number concepts. Despite the limitations placed on schools in terms of use of physical resources and the sharing of them, sufficient reading books are able to be used in school, (and also go home.) This supports home/school reading and fidelity to our chosen phonics scheme (Jolly Phonics). The foundation subjects will be planned with increasing detail, and consideration for how prior knowledge will be reinforced alongside new learning, so that knowledge can be retained and built upon, and gaps can be reduced. Wider range of resources for teaching of Maths and Spelling used to help remediate gaps	Purchase additional manipulatives (for EYFS/KS1 initially.) (£1000) Purchase additional phonically decodable reading books for EYFS/KS1/lower KS2 Purchase Jolly Phonics Grammar games and Songs (£2000) Additional time for teachers to monitor, evaluate research and plan non-core subjects. Teaching assessment and feedback Teachers have a very clear understanding of what gaps in learning remain, and use this to inform assessments of learning that are aligned with standardised norms, giving a greater degree in confidence and accuracy of assessments.	Purchase and implement the NFER National Test-style Standardised Assessments suite. Complete termly tests and record assessments on ASPIRE (purchase Aspire package) to identify gaps and to track performance. (£3500)		S. Huddleston	July 21

Transition support Children who are joining school mid-term from different settings or who are beginning their schooling with Scotforth have an opportunity to become familiar and confident with the setting before they arrive. Transition between Key stages is often tricky and is compounded this year by children having missed a significant chunk of KS1 time prior to moving to KS2. A focus on emotional resilience will aid a smooth transition from end KS1 to start of KS2	A virtual tour of our school is published, and shared with all new-starters.
