"Let faith be your shield"

Newsletter No 18 Friday 24th January 2020

Peace Prom

Once again this was a huge success and enjoyed by all who took part. Many thanks to all the staff who gave up their valuable Saturday to participate in this event and for the parents' support in travelling to watch the children. They were brilliant and did us proud. We look forward to taking part next year.

St. John's Hospice

Please see the attached poster from the hospice with regards to the collection we had at Christmas.

School Absence

If your child is ill, please remember to call school before 9.30am. If your call is not answered immediately, please try again later as lines are often very busy first thing.

School Lunches

Many thanks to those parents who pay in advance for school lunches, however please can we remind parents that school lunches must be paid for in advance to avoid building up arrears and are £2.30 per day/£11.50 per week.

Y5 Lockerbie Trip

Balances for the Lockerbie trip must be paid by Friday, 26th June 2020 at the very latest. You can pay a small amount at any time or the full balance and payments can be made in cash, cheque (payable to Scotforth School Fund) or by using Scopay. Many thanks.

Online Safety

Please see the latest attached information leaflet in the series about online safety. Please take time to look through these with your child and discuss how to stay safe generally.

Helping the Homeless

Hello Everyone,

My name is Bella and I am in Y3. I like to help the homeless by giving them food and drink but I would like to do more by making up 'care packages'. I have talked to Miss Huddleston and she has agreed to help and in turn has asked Rev Rebecca who came up with the great idea of donating the care packages to the Christ Church Homeless Shelter.

To make this wish happen I need help from everyone. Below is the official list of items needed in a care package and if everyone could send in just one item, then we would be able to help and show the homeless people that they haven't been forgotten.

Thank you everyone for your help. Bella Y3

Items for the care package

Tooth paste/ Brush	Deodorant (roll on)
Socks/Gloves/Hat/Scarf	Face flannel
Hairbrush/comb	Hand gel
Soap	Face wipes (baby wipes)
Sanitary products	Plasters
Lip balm/Vaseline	Packets of tissues
Tinned food/biscuits/crackers/Granola bars

Scotforth Play Schemes (After School Club)

Message from Marie to all parents;

Register Your Children Now if you use Breakfast, After School & Holiday Play Schemes

Families who use Breakfast, After School & Holiday club have to register their children on a new booking and payment system to continue to use the services. Bookings are now open for February Holiday Club and all fixed Breakfast & After School club booking will need to be booked before the end of this half term.

Parents who use the services on an ad-hock basis (booking varied sessions) also have to register their children and are advised to pay money into a wallet using childcare voucher, tax free childcare or bank transfer so that bookings can instantly be made and paid for. The drop-in service will no longer operate, however parents will be able to book up to an hour before the session starts depending on availability. There is also a handy app which currently costs 99p but will be free by the end of January.

All current users have been sent letters through the post (to arrive shortly) with detailed instructions regarding making bookings & payments.

The link will be available within the letter, please read the letter thoroughly, before registering and/or booking your childcare. Marie is available to answer questions onsite during after school club or via email: admin@scotforthplayschemes.co.uk or Tel: 07796569719

Using tracking and location settings on kids devices

Here's what you need to consider before deciding to share your child's location on their device and how to best use apps that offer location tracking.

Which devices?

Some phones come equipped with software that can track your child's location, for example the Monqi phone. Others have settings specific to the phone that can switch your child's location services on and off so that apps are not able to share their location.

Age and privacy

Lots of parents want to see where their younger children are when they're out alone or with friends, using a well-known app like Boomerang or Qustodio. However, as children get older, they will want to find their own independence so it's important to have regular conversation about how best to use this tool to support them.

App access

Be aware of which apps your child uses as some can reveal their location to lots of people, for example Snapchat maps. You can design privacy settings that are right for you for them by blocking some apps from accessing your child's location, while enabling others.

Real time updates

If you feel like your child is vulnerable to sharing too much online, you can install apps to monitor what they are sharing and with whom. Encourage your children to not share their location or images in real-time so they don't give away their location to people they don't know.

Location zones

Some apps give you the option to set boundaries of where your child can go when they are out and about. This can be a good tool to establish boundaries with your child and as they get older and gain more independence. It's a good idea to schedule in checkpoints of when to review the boundaries set so they work for both of you.

Apps have limitations

You'll never be able to fully monitor your child's whereabouts through their phone, so it's important to create an environment where your child is able to share what they've been up to and any concerns they may have.

Building trust

No app can make up for a lack of trust. Whether you decide to disable the location settings within the phone, or install apps specifically designed to help you keep track of your child's location, you should be honest and open with your child.

It's vital you tell them whether you're tracking their movements or not, and the reasons behind it. You can set rules about when you will be checking their location, for example if they are late home or not responsive.

Top apps for location tracking

iOS 12 for iPhone and iPad

Screen Time features built into the iOS 12 for iPhone and iPad devices offer great family controls for free and at the operating system level.

Monqi phone

Monqi is an all-in-one solution. It's a smartphone that has controls built into the handset. At £149 it's not cheap, but that price includes the device as well.

Boomerang

As with other apps, it includes location tracking with updates on your child's whereabouts via their mobile device. It works only on iOS and Android devices.

Family Time

This is an app you install on each of your devices that lets you control exactly what your child can do online. You can also track movement and set zones that will alert you if the child leaves them. The app is limited to iOS, Android and Kindle devices.

OurPact

User-friendly App that can track calls, and texts and monitor a range of online activities. There are three subscription plans: Free, Plus, and Premium. The Premium option allows you to access all its features.

Working with over 15,000 schools to help combat obesity in children & young adults

Family First was launched in 2017 with the sole aim of producing a free magazine that provides parents with all the tools required to help keep their children active, eating healthy & playing more sport (and away from their PlayStation/Xbox), helping to combat obesity in children & young adults.

We have pledged to give away over £1,000,000 of sports & cooking equipment to participating schools, so now is the time to support.
