Dear parent or carer

We would like to thank all the children who entered our Easter Egg Competition yesterday and for all their wonderful work. We certainly enjoyed seeing them, although the judging was as difficult as it always is, as there are so many deserving winners. It was very strange not holding the competition in school for the first time in many years, and also difficult judging this year without Father Phil's experience to guide us; we messaged him to let him know we missed him! As would be expected, some of the current themes from the times we are living in were on display, as well as more traditional Easter themed creations.

As far as the House competition was concerned, each entry per child added one point towards the house total. We also changed things a little this year and awarded prizes for first, second and third in each year group and with it an extra 3, 2 and 1 point(s) respectively. That means that the overall winners this year are Hastings with 24 points, Blake and Seaton are joint second with 17 points and Delaval finished last with 16 points.

The individual winners were:

Year 5

1st - Max Reid

2nd - Daisy Storey

3rd - Chloe Bensley

Year 6

1st - Charlie Kidd

2nd - Aidan Guy

3rd - Nathaniel Deeming

Year 7

1st - Reiss Mason

2nd - Caitlin Barnes

3rd - JJ Maloney

Year 8

1st - Poppy Ryan

2nd - Aimee Coatsworth

3rd - Gracie Dalgarno-Todd

We hope the children enjoyed being creative and we look forward to being able to show the winning entries on our website or Twitter feed.

Yours sincerely

Mr Souter
