

Round The Clock

Study Tips

Round the Clock

A way of revising which can break a topic down into 12 sub-categories

Place the topic in the centre of the clock

Make notes in each chunk of the clock picking out the most important themes from that topic

Revise and then get people to test you and test yourself

Use Colours to highlight key words or themes

The Balkans

considering of Serbia, Austria-Hungary and in 1902, signed the Treaty of London. The Balkan League was formed in 1908. Austria-Hungary wanted to control the Balkans. All countries in the Balkans, however, Austria-Hungary had increased its power in the Balkans. So did Serbia. There was no peace in the Balkans. But Austria-Hungary had a big army. The Balkan League was formed in 1908. Austria-Hungary had a big army. The Balkan League was formed in 1908. Austria-Hungary had a big army.

The Triple Alliance

consists of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy. The Triple Alliance was formed in 1882. It was a defensive alliance. It was a defensive alliance. It was a defensive alliance. It was a defensive alliance.

German Foreign Policy

This was also known as the 'Weltpolitik'. The leader was Kaiser Wilhelm II. He wanted to have a bigger, stronger empire.

The Moroccan Crisis

Beginning in 1905, the British made a ship called the 'Albatross', making 24,000 tons of steel, all over the world. The naval race was between Britain and Germany. The Moroccan crisis was a result of this.

South American Policy

Britain had the largest empire in the world. She wanted to control the world. She wanted to control the world. She wanted to control the world. She wanted to control the world.

The Moroccan Crisis

France was given a free hand in Morocco. Germany needed to claim Morocco should be independent. The Moroccan crisis was a result of this. It was a result of this. It was a result of this. It was a result of this.

