

Anne Frank creative writing - A world free of prejudice and racism

Dear Diary-

I can imagine it now.... Is it possible? Can it be accomplished? This hatred for being different has been carried on for thousands of years and needs to be put to a halt. Millions of innocent people have been killed. We can't sit idly by watching it happen right before our eyes. You can sit and watch or stand up and make a difference. Every person counts at these hard times, we have our ups and downs but other people are there to push you over the rise. We are stronger in numbers! We are stronger together! Your children, your children's children will have the same struggles if this continues. It needs to stop. If it doesn't stop now it will linger for thousands of years to come. Life can't continue like this forever. I want this message to be shared and if I stand alone so be it, but I need all the help I can get. Not for the sake of me but every human on this planet. It's not on. Racism will not stand, prejudice will not stand, but we will.
